

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

ESSAYS OF MARTIAL

P R E F A C E.

SOME years ago, the following performance was undertaken for amusement ; and it is hoped, the revisal and publication will not be thought entirely vanity. If it may sometimes excite mirth in the reader ; that is not the principal aim and intention ; which is to make him wiser, by exhibiting a picture of life by a masterly hand. What shall I call it ? It is a translation or imitation of Martial ; or both. Not of all his epigrams ; that would be unpardonable. Many are full of obscenity, beneath a man : others of adulation, unbecoming a Roman : and great numbers concerning his own writings are omitted, for fear of cloying the reader. Some few will not admit of a translation : and not a few are too trifling to deserve it : and of this last sort, perhaps I might have been forgiven, if I had retrenched more. What I have selected are generally moral or instructive ; in which a great variety of cha-

P R E F A C E.

raeters is introduced; and the follies and foibles of many are justly ridiculed. These follies and foibles are the same in all ages; and among all people, resembling each other in opulence. For man, who in thought can traverse the universe, is confined in action to the narrow labyrinth of this life, where he is ever changing the walks in search of something new and entertaining; but in all the variety cannot discover one, which hath not been trod before. What was practised at Rome, near seventeen hundred years since, is now going on at London. Shift but the scene, and you would think Martial was flashing our times. The cap fits exactly. Therefore to entertain the reader; instead of attending him to the Capitol, I go with him to Paul's: and conduct him through the most remarkable parts of the town and its environs. Where instead of a consul or praetor, he meets with the speaker or lord mayor: and not with Marcus, Caius, or Publius, but with Jack, Tom, Harry, and the rest of his acquaintances. Many of the Roman customs are very different from ours: and in those cases I am forced to take take a latitude ; and make the parallel suit as well as I can. For instance : supper was their best meal, and dinner is ours ; and therefore when the Roman sups, the Englishman often dines. I cannot make the last a candidate for the consulate ; but I can for a seat in parliament. He goes not to Baiae, but Bath : not to Anxur, but Harrow. He baths not every day, but appears at Ranelagh, &c.

I have added in an appendix such epigrams as I found in Cowley, or the Spectator ; as a dessert to a coarse entertainment. These I could not think of attempting ; since those by worse hands might make mine of little value. There may be many more dispersed in miscellanies ; but they have not fallen in my way. If I had met with any, which I have translated, I would not have made the world a worse present. For I am far from thinking, that I am a favourite of the muses ; or that Apollo will place me in any eminent station. On the contrary (aurem vellit) he admonishes me ; as my years ought to do ; and to make me say with a wiser man (Nunc itaque et versus et cætera ludicra pono) that I renounce poetry poetry and trifles. But I have before mentioned my motive to this attempt : and of all species of verse, this is the least discouraging. It requires not (os magna sonatuum) pompous and sublime expressions; but (sermoni propiore) the most easy and familiar. The translator or imitator is only to adapt the idioms and parallels; the hint or thought is furnished by the original. And indeed, little can any of my countrymen now expect to succeed on their own fund. Parnassus hath been culled from top to bottom; and scarce a wreath more is to be gathered there. English poetry hath been carried to its height; and as the Latin from the Augustan age was in its decline; ours is so at present. Not very many are the pieces now extant, and one may venture to prophesy, that fewer will appear hereafter, which can or will be read with pleasure, after Shakespear, Milton, Dryden, and Pope.

I have one favour to beg of the reader: that where ever any character is ridiculed, and I use any common name or title, he would not apply it to individuals. Such names and tides are taken up at adventure; some-sometimes for the sake of sound or metre ; and in general to make the epigram appear more natural and familiar. And I can with truth and sincerity declare, that I never once had a particular person in my view. Were I to censure others, my own foibles would reprove me. And it would ill become me to ridicule my neighbour, who lay so open to ridicule myself. Nor have I the least provocation ; for, I thank God, I have no enemy. I know of none ; and should be sorry to create any ; and to offend, where I intended to divert. If any thing is applied, I am innocent : and there can be but one of these two persons to blame ; either he, who applies unjustly ; or he, who deserves the application.

ARGILETANAS mavis habitare tabernas,
Cùm tibi, parve liber, scrinia nostra vacent.
Nescis, heu, nescis dominæ fastidia Romæ :
Crede mihi, nimium Martia tuſba sapit.
Majores nusquam ronchi; juvenesque senesque
Et pueri nasum Rhinocerotis habent.
Audieris cùm grande sophos, dum basia captas,
Ibis ab excusso missus in astra fago.
Sed tu, ne toties domini patiare lituras,
Néve notet laſus tristis arundo tuos ;
Ætherias, lascive, cupis volitare per auras :

OF

BOOK THE FIRST.

Epigram IV. To his Book.

WHY in Pall-mall with Dodsley will you dwell,
When in my desk you still might lodge so well ?
Little you know, how nice the taste in town :
The meanest of mankind are critics grown.
Sneerers abound ; the beau, the man in years,
The boy at school, the scoff of Bentley wears.
They cry, ‘Extremely fine !’ You gorge the lye ;
But soon in rockets to the stars shall fly.
You, who castration dread, who hate my strokes,
And grave correction of your idle jokes,
On wanton wing now figh abroad to roam :
Away :—but you might safer be at home.

IX. Deciani dogma laudat.

Quod magni Thraseæ, consummatique Catonis
 Dogmata sic sequeris, salvus ut esse velis ;
 Pectore nec nudo strictos incurris in enses :
 Quod fecisse velim te, Deciane, facis,
 Nolo virum, facili redimit qui sanguine famam :
 Hunc volo, laudari qui sine morte potest.

XI. De Gemello, & Maronillâ.

PETIT Gemellus nuptias Maronillæ,
 Et cupid, & initat, & precatur, & donat.
 Adeóne pulchra est ? imò fœdius nil est.
 Quid ergo in illâ petitur & placet ? tuffit.

XIV. De Arria & Pæto.

CASTA suo gladium cùm traderet Arria Pæto,
 Quem de visceribus traxerat ipsa suis :
 Si qua fides, vulnus, quod feci, non dolet, inquit ;
 Sed quod tu facies, hoc mihi, Pæte, dolet.

XVI. Ad Julium.

O mihi post nullos Juli memorande sodales ;
 Si quid longa fides, castaque jura valent :
 Bis jam penè tibi consul trigesimus irista
 Et numerat paucos vix tua vita dies.
 Non bene distuleris, videas quæ posse negari ;
 Et solum hoc ducas, quod fuit, esse tuum.

Ep. IX.

THAT you, like Thrasea, or like Cato, great,
Pursue their maxims, but decline their fate ;
Nor rashly point the dagger to your heart ;
More to my wish you act a Roman's part.
I like not him, who fame by death retrieves :
Give me the man, who merits praise, and lives.

Ep. XI.

To lady Mary Belair makes addresses ;
Presents he makes, sighs, presses, and professes.
Is she so fair ? — No lady so ill off.
What is so captivating then ? — her cough.

Ep. XIV.

WHEN the chaste Arria drew the reeking sword
From her own breast, and gave it to her lord ;
This wound, she said, believe me, I despise :
I feel that deeper by which Pætus dies.

Ep. XVI.

Thou, whom (if faith or honour recommends
A friend) I rank amongst my dearest friends,
Remember, you are now almost threescore :
Few days of life remain, if any more.
Defer not, what no future time insures :
And only what is past, esteem that yours.

Exspectant curæque catenatique labores.
 Guadia non remanent, sed fugitiva volant.
 Hæc utrâque manu complexuque assere toto :
 Sæpe fluunt imo sic quoque lapsa finu.
 Non est, crede mihi, sapientis dicere, vivam.
 Sera nimis vita est crastina ; vive hodie.

XXII. De Persenâ & Mucio Scævolâ.

Cum peteret regem decepta satellite dextra,
 Ingessit sacris se peritura foci.
 Sed tam sæva pius miracula non tulit hostis,
 Et raptum flammis jussit abire virum.
 Urere quam potuit contempto Mucius igne,
 Hanc spectare manum Porsena non potuit.
 Major deceptæ fama est & gloria dextræ.
 Si non errasset, fecerat illa minus.

XXVI. Ad Faustinum.

Fide tuos tandem populo, Faustine, libellos,
 Et cultum docto pectora profer opus :
 Quod nec Cecropiæ damnent Pandionis arces,
 Nec fileant nostri, prætereantque senes.
 Ante fores stantem dubitas admittere famam ?
 Téque piget curæ præmia ferre tuæ ?
 Post te victuræ, per te quoque vivere chartæ
 Incipient. cineri gloria sera venit.

XXXIV. De

Book I. SELECT EPIGRAMS.

Successive cares and trouble for your stay ;
Pleasure not so ; it nimbly fleets away.
Then seize it fast ; embrace it ere it flies ;
In the embrace it vanishes and dies.
I'll live to-morrow, will a wise man say ?
To-morrow is too late, then live to day.

Ep. XXII.

The hand, which struck the servant for the king,
Did in the fire itself a victim fling.
The dreadful wonder mov'd the pious foe :
He snatch'd the man from flames, and let him go.
Mucius unmov'd the hand to burn decreed ;
Porsena could not view the tragic deed.
That hand by failing gain'd a nobler fame ;
And less had done, had it not miss'd his aim.

Ep. XXVI.

Your book, Sir George, now give to public use ;
From your rich fund the polish'd piece produce :
Which will defy the Louvre's nicer laws ;
And from our crities here command applause.
Fame at your portal waits ; the door why barr'd ?
Why loth to take your labour's just reward ?
Let works live with you, which will long survive ;
For honours after death too late arrive.

XXXIV. De Gellia.

AMISSUM non flet, cùm sola est Gellia, patrem:
 Si quis adeſt, iuſſæ profiliunt lacrymæ.
 Non dolet hic, quisquis laudari, Gellia, quærit;
 Ille dolet verè, qui finè teste dolet.

XXXVII. Ad Lucanum, & Tullum.

Si, Lucane, tibi, vel si tibi, Tulle, darentur,
 Qualia Ledaei fata Lacones habent:
 Nobilis hæc effet pietatis rixa duobus,
 Quòd pro fratre mori vellet uterque prior:
 Diceret infernas & quod prior issit ad umbras;
 Vive tuo, frater, tempore; vive meo.

XL. Ad Decianum.

Si, quis erit, raros inter numerandus amicos,
 Quales prisca fides, famaque novit anus:
 Si quis Cecropiæ madidus Latianeque Minervæ
 Artibus, & verâ simplicitate bonus:
 Si quis erit recti custos, imitator honesti,
 Et nihil arcano qui roget ore deos:
 Si quis erit magnæ subnixus robore mentis;
 Dispeream, si non hic Decianus erit.

Ep. XXXIV.

HER father dead! —— Alone no grief she knows;
 Th' obedient tear at every visit flows.
 No mourner he, who must with praise be fee'd!
 But he, who mourns in secret, mourns indeed!

Ep. XXXVII.

FRATERNAL love in such strong currents runs,
 That were your fate, like that of Leda's sons;
 This were the single, but the generous, strife,
 Which for the other first should yield his life:
 He first would cry, who first should breath resign,
 Live thou, dear brother, both thy days and mine.

Ep. XL.

Is there a friend, like those distinguish'd few,
 Renown'd for faith, whom former ages knew;
 Polish'd by art, in every science wise;
 Truly sincere, and good without disguise;
 Guardian of right, who doth by honour steer;
 Who makes no prayer but all the world may hear;
 Who doth on fortitude of mind depend?
 I knew indeed, but dare not name, that friend.

Ep. XLIII.

WHEN Porcia was inform'd, her lord was dead;
 And the stoln dagger sought in vain; she said,

Nondum scitis, ait, mortem non posse negari?
 Credideram satis hoc vos docuisse patrem.
 Dixit, & ardentes avido bibit ore favillas:
 I nunc, & ferrum, turba molesta, nega.

LV. Ad Fuscum.

Si quid, Fusce, vacas adhuc amari;
 Nam sunt hinc tibi, sunt & hinc amici:
 Unum, si supereft, locum rogamus:
 Nec me, quod tibi sum novus, recuses:
 Omnes hoc veteres tui fuerunt.
 Tu tantum inspice, qui novus paratur
 An possit fieri vetus sodalis.

LVIII. Ad Flaccum.

Qualem, Flacce, velim, quæris, nolimve puellam?
 Nolo nimis facilem, difficilēmque nimis.
 Illud, quod medium est, atque inter utrumque, probamus.
 Nec volo, quod cruciat; nec volo, quod satiat.

 Alike in genius, and the next in fame.
 Waller polite from Hertford's bounds removes,
 To court the fair in Penshurst's ravish'd groves.
 The lofty Denham, from Hibernia's shore,
 Makes Cooper's Hill what Pindus was before.
 Hear Cowley's infant cries ! the town he hates :
 Bear him, ye swans, to Chertsey's green retreats.
 But let her Prior in the town remain,
 With well-wrought tales his town to entertain.
 The Coritani deck their Dryden's bays :
 Th' accomplish'd Addison his Belgæ praise.
 Pope's Windsor Dryads listen to his verse ;
 And at his grot the Naiads slack their course.
 Cornavian climes the merry Butler bore :
 And tender Otway grac'd my native shore. †

Ep. LXXIV.

YOUR wife's the plainest piece a man can see :
No soul would touch her, whilst you left her free ;
But since to guard her you employ all arts,
The rakes besiege her.—You're a man of parts !

Ep. LXXXVII.

SIR Formal's house adjoining stands :
We from our windows may shake hands ;
Blest situation ! you will say.
Do not you envy me I pray,
Who may, at early hours and late,
Enjoy a friend so intimate ?
Sir Formal is to me, as near,
As is the Consul at Algier.
So far from intimacy is it,
We seldom speak, we never visit.
In the whole town no soul can be
So near, and yet so far from me.
'Tis time for him or me to start ;
We cannot meet, unless we part.
Would you sir Formal keep aloof ;
Take lodgings under the same roof.

Ep. XC.

YOUR powder'd nose you thrust in every ear ;
And whisper that, which all the world may hear :

Rides in aurem, quereris, arguis, ploras :
 Cantas in aurem, judicas, taces, clamias.
 Adeóne penitus sedit hic tibi morbus,
 Ut sæpe in aurem, Cinna, Cæfarem laudes ?

C. Ad Calonum avarum.

Non plenum modò vicies habebas,
 Sed tam prodigus, atque liberalis.
 Et tam laetus erat, Calene, ut omnes
 Optarent tibi centies amici.
 Audit vota Deus, precésque nostras ;
 Atque intrà, puto, septimas Calendas
 Mortes hoc tibi quatuor dederunt.
 At tu sic, quasi non foret relictum,
 Sed raptum tibi centies, abiisti
 In tantam miser esuritionem,
 Ut convivia sumptuosiora,
 Toto quæ semel apparas in anno,
 Nigræ fordibus explices monetæ ;
 Et septem veteres tui sodales
 Constemus tibi plumbeâ felibrâ.
 Quid dignum meritis precemur istis ?
 Optamus tibi millies, Calene :
 Hoc si contigerit, fame péribis.

MARTIALIS

In whispers smile, or wear a dismal face :
 In whispers state, or else lament, the case :
 Now hum a tune, judicious now appear,
 Now hold your tongue, now hollow, in the ear.
 Is this a secret too ? Your accent raise :
 We love the king, whom you in whispers praise.

Ep. C.

WHEN some time since you had not clear
 Above three hundred pounds a year,
 You lived so well, your bounty such,
 Your friends all wish'd you twice as much :
 Heaven with our wishes soon complied ;
 In fix months four relations died.
 But you, so far from having more,
 Seem robb'd of what you had before :
 A greater miser every day,
 Live in a cursed starving way ;
 Scarce entertain us once a year ;
 And then not worth a groat the cheer :
 Seven old companions, men of sense,
 Scarce cost you now as many pence.
 What shall we wish you on our part ?
 What wish can equal your desert ?
 Thousands a year may heaven grant !
 Then you will starve, and die for want !

Ep. XI.

SEE you the cloud on yonder mortal's face ?
 Walking the Māl, the last who quits the place :
 In tragic silence, and in dumps profound,
 His nose almost draws furrows on the ground :
 His wig he twitches, and he canes the air.
 Is he for friend or brother in despair ?
 'Tis no such thing. Two sons with him do dwell :
 They both are promising, they both are well :
 So his good wife, for whom we all do pray :
 Safe are his bags ; nor servants run away :
 Duly accounts his steward for his rent ;
 And by his bailiff's care his crops augment.
 Say, from what cause can such affliction come !
 Is there not cause ? ye gods ! he sups at home.

Ep. XVI.

VAINLOVE is ill : his illness is his bed,
 Made up of chintz and filks prohibited :
 Near it an Indian screen, and work'd settee,
 Inflame his fever to a high degree.
 When he is well, these fopperies are not seen :
 They make him sick, and give us too the spleen.
 Dismiss his doctors ; and apply my spell ;
 Let him change beds with me, and he'll be well.

Tu captas aliam. jam sumus ergo pares.

Manè salutatum venio : tu diceris îsse

Antè salutatum. jam sumus ergo pares.

Tu comes alterius. jam sumus ergo pares.

And you another's :—then we're on a par.
Your levee I frequent : and you go far
Unto another's :—still we're on a par.
I, your led captain, walk before you bare :
You are another's :—still we're we're on a par.
Though servant, yet I'll be no servant's slave :
A master should himself no master have.

Ep. XXX.

WHEN twenty pounds I'd borrow of a friend,
One, who might give me more, as well as lend ;
Blest in his fortune ; my companion old ;
Whose coffers, and whose purse-strings, crack with gold ;
‘ Turn lawyer, and you'll soon grow rich, he cries :
Give what I ask, my friend :—’tis not advice.

Ep. XXXII.

WILL and I differ ;—who so great as Will ?
Too great for you.—And Tom is greater still.
My neighbour Cringer trespasseth my land ;
You dare not favourites at court withstand.
The widow Scrapeall doth my goods withhold ;
You answer, She is childless, rich, and old.
How can I serve a friend, that is not free ?
Free be the man, who would my master be.

Ep. XXXVII.

You sweep my table : sausages, and chine,
A capon on which two at least may dine,
Smelts, salmon, sturgeon, birds of every feather,
Dripping with sauce, you wrap up all together ;
And give it to your servant home to bear ;
Leaving us nothing, but to sit and stare.
For shame restore the dinner ; ease our sorrow :
I did not ask you, sir, to dine to-morrow.

Ep. XLIII.

STILL in your mouth, and at your fingers ends,
These words ;—‘ All things are common amongst friends.’
Fine cloth, or Genoa velvet, is your coat :
A tatter’d scare-scrow mine, not worth a groat.
With tables of mahogany you’re stored :
I have but one, and that a beechen board.
The ample salmon fills your golden dish :
The crab my platter, colour’d like the fish.
Your servants spruce ; each seems a Ganymede :
Me a dumb-waiter serves whene’er I feed.
For old acquaintance do you nothing care ?
From so much riches can you nothing spare ?

Ex opibus tantis veteri fidoque sodali
Das nihil, & dicit, Candide, καὶ τι πάντα;

XLIV. In Sextum.

Seu tres, ut puto, quatuorve libras;
Sextus protinus ille fœnector,
Quem nōtis veterem meum sodalem,
Ne quid fortè petam, timet, cavetque;
Et secum, sed ut audiam, susurrat;
Septem millia debo Secundo;
Phœbo quatuor; undecim Phileto;
Et quadrans mihi nullus est in arcâ.
O grande ingenium mei sodalis!
Durum est, Sexte, negare, cùm rogaris:
Quanto durius, antequam rogeris!

XLVIII. Ad Rufum.

Cauponem, laniūmque, balneūmque,
Tonsorem, tabulāmque, calculōsque,
Et paucos, sed ut eligam, libellos:
Unum non nimirūm rudem sodalem,
Et caram puerο mee puellam,
Et grandem puerum, diūque levem:
Hæc præsta mihi Rufe, vel Bitonti;
Et thermas tibi habe Neronianas.

Is your expression a vain song, which ends
Where it begun?—All's common amongst friends.

Ep. XLIV.

THE scrivener, who of late so rich is grown,
Whom we have long so intimately known,
Saw my coat laced, my boy in livery wait,
And on my side-board a small piece of plate :
He thence concludes, I'm now extravagant;
And fearing I may his assistance want,
He mumbles to himself, that I may hear :
 ‘ My God! what will become of me this year !
 ‘ Seven thousand pounds to Gripe, to Shylock four
 ‘ I owe; and to my broker as much more !
 ‘ And not one farthing by me ! nor can get !
 How great, old friend, is your Change-alley wit !
 To ask and be denied is hard, all know :
 Before I ask, is most extremely so.

Ep. XLVIII.

WINE, and good fare, and my own person nice,
Backgammon-tables, and a pair of dice,
Books very few, but those all chosen right,
One only friend, and him not unpolite,
A man and maid, both honest, free from crime,
Both neat and handy, and in age's prime,
Grant me in any corner of the land :
Yours be the town ; or yours the world's command.

Si quid habes animi, si quid in arte vales.

Si schola damnatur; fora litibus omnia fervent:

Ep. LXIV.

SOMETIMES a lawyer, sometimes a divine,
You say you'll be ; yet neither are in fine ;
Before you fix your choice, you lose an age ;
Fit to retire, before you mount the stage.
Three bishops are gone off within the year ;
If you have any soul, you'll now appear.
Or else ; there's so much business in the laws,
A post, if rob'd, could never want a cause.
Rouse : in this world begin to preach or plead :
You'll make a sorry dean or sergeant dead.

Ep. LXV.

Why seem you dead to all the joys of life ?
Have I not cause ? you say :—I've lost my wife.
Oh ! cursed fate ! and oh ! misfortune dire !
That one so wealthy should so soon expire !
Who left you twice five hundred annual rent !
—I'm sorry you have had this accident.

Ep. LXXI.

NOTHING I see your candour can exceed,
My distichs whensoe'er you please to read :
From Dryden or from Pope you cite a line,
To shew how much they both fall short of mine,

Ut collata magis placeant mea? credimus illud.
Malo tamen recites, Cæciliæ, tua.

Non sunt longa, quibus nihil est quod demere possit;
Sed tu, Cosconi, disticha longa facias.

What crouds of friends support him on each side !
Such multitudes did never with lord mayor
On solemn festival to Paul's repair :
You gazing cry, ‘ How times with him are mended !
May never friend of mine be thus attended !
Envy him not : the matter I'll explain :
You see his mortgage ; and 'tis Trapland's train.

Ep. LXXVII.

My epigrams are long in your conceit :
Much fitter for a groom than judge of wit.
Long in your sense the giants in Guildhall ;
And short the British king on Ludgate wall.
Learn ; that the Iliad and the Æneid shines,
Though each contains so many thousand lines.
Works are not long, from which you nought can take :
But long the very distichs, which you make.

Ep. LXXVIII.

WHAT place to keep your ice in I approve,

On Bagshot Heath you can't be more alone.
If you ask, why?—You are bewitch'd with rhime:
And this, believe me, is a dangerous crime.
Robb'd of her whelps a tigress thus we shun;
Or viper basking in the noon-day sun:
Not more the dreadful scorpion's sting we fear,
Than this incessant lugging by the ear.
Standing or sitting, you repeat your lays:
On my close-stool I hear them; in my chaise:
Your trumpet on the water strikes my ear,
I at Vaux-hall no other music hear.

 Proud of her name Heraclea once was here !
 All drown'd in flames ! with ashes cover'd o'er !
 The gods, who caus'd the ill, their power deplore.

Ep. LIV.

You, whom your country's honours high do raise,
 And crown with merited, but early praise ;
 If you are wise, make use of every hour ;
 And never think another in your power.
 No man could ever soften cruel fate ;
 But what, that once decrees, must be our date.
 Were you polite as Sidney, or as great,
 Had Cato's soul, or Marlborough's estate ;
 Still is life's line by the three sister's sped :
 Not one prolongs, but one still cuts, the thread.

Ep. LVI.

RICH presents, to old men and widows sent,
 You hope, may prove you are munificent.
 What can your Fordid baseness more declare,
 When for a present thus you send a snare ?
 Such presents makes the angler to the trout :
 Such presents in a mouse-trap are set out.

LXVI. Ad Lipum.

Ecisti vitam semper, Line, municipalem:
Quâ nihil omnino vilius esse potest.
Idibus, & raris togula est excussa Kalendis:
Duxit & æstates synthesis una decem.
Saltus apud, campus leporum tibi misit inemptum,
Sylva gravis turdos exagitata dedit.
Raptus flumineo venit de gurgite piscis:
Vina rubens fudit non peregrina cadus.
Nec tener Argolicâ missus de gente minister,
Sed stetit inculti rustica turba foci.
Villica vel duri compressa est nupta coloni:
Incaluit quoties faucia vena mero.
Nec nocuit tectis ignis; nec Sirius agris:
Nec mersa est pelago, nec fluit ulla ratis.
Supposita est blando numquam tibi tessera talo:
Alea sed parcæ sola fuere nuces.
Dic ubi fit decies, mater quod avara reliquit;
Nusquam est, fecisti rem, Line, difficilem.

LXIX. Ad Pamphilum.

Pamphile: sed rumor tam bona vina negat,
Diceris hâc factus cœlebs quater esse lagenâ.
Nec puto, nec credo, Pamphile, nec fitio.

LXX. De

If you would learn what's generous and free ;
A real present is one sent to me.

Ep. LXVI.

Your life has ever in the country been ;
And in a way, that nothing was so mean.
Scarce at a wedding a new bob did wear :
Your coat an old acquaintance of ten year.
From your estate your pork and venison came :
Your ponds supplied your fish, your woods your game.
And not a glass of wine throughout the year ;
Your cellar stock'd with only your own beer.
No French valet appear'd in spruce attire :
Only John trots about your kitchen fire.
You ne'er had drunken frolick in your life,
That ever aimed above a farmer's wife.
No loss by fire, or by tempestuous skies,
Of ships, insurance, freight, or merchandise.
You never played or ventured deep at White's :
The most was shilling whist on winter nights.
How is your mother's vast estate run out ?
You've brought a most surprising thing about !

Ep. LXIX.

With the best wines of France you entertain :
Yet that your wine is bad the world complain :
That you have lost four wives by it ; but I
Neither believe it, Sir,—nor am adry.

LXXIII. De Vestino.

Cum gravis extremas Vestinus duceret horas,
 Et jam per Stygias esset iturus aquas,
 Ultima volventes orabat pensa sorores,
 Ut traherent parvâ stamina pulla morâ.
 Jam sibi defunctus, caris dum vivit amicis:
 Moverunt tetricas tam pia vota Deas.
 Tum largas partitus opes, à luce receffit:
 Séque mori post hoc credidit ille senem.

Ep. LXXI.

JACK's father's dead ; and left him without hope :
 For he hath nothing left him, but a rope.
 By a strange turn did fortune thus contrive,
 To make Jack wish, his father were alive.

Ep. LXXII.

You ask me for my books of poems still :
 I have not one ; but Dodsley's shop they fill.
 What ! spend my money ! and such trifles buy !
 I am not such a fool, say you :—nor I.

Ep. LXXIII.

WHEN on Time's precipice Alworthy stood,
 Ready to launch into th' eternal flood,
 The cruel Fates addressing thus he said,
 ' Ye goddesses one moment spare my thread :
 ' Lost though I am, let friends my bounty prove.
 His pious prayers the rigid sisters move.
 He his vast wealth divides ; then quits the stage ;
 And in that moment liv'd a Nestor's age.

 Who your whole fortune to your consort spare ;
 And know no joy, in which he bears no share :

LXXXIV. Az

Evadne died in her lord's funeral flame;
 Nor less immortal is Alcestis' name;
 Yet less did they, when they resign'd their breath:
 Late is the proof of love, when after death.

Ep. LXXVII.

I NEVER did the gods importune,
 To grant to me a monstrous fortune;
 Contented with my little store:
 But now I own I wish for more.
 Whence comes this sudden love of self?
 —That Zoilus may hang himself.

Ep. LXXIX.

THRICE twenty years you've seen your grass made hay:
 Your eyebrows too proclaim your hair is grey:
 Yet through all quarters of the town you run;
 At every ball, and levee, you make one.
 No great man flirs, but you are at his heels;
 And never fail both them, who have the seals.
 You never miss St. James's; ever chat
 Of lord or bishop this, or general that.
 To youth leave trifles: have you not been told,
 • That of all fools no fool is like the old?

Ep. LXXX.

You still were welcome at my country seat.
 You buy it. It was yours before.—You're bit.

LXXXIV. In Nævolum.

Sollicito nihil est, Nævole, te melius.
Securus, nullam res salutas, despicias omnes;

And nothing more obliging in disgrace.
In place, you bow to none; scorn every soul;

I AM, I own, and ever have been poor,
But yet a gentleman, and not obscure.
Spread through the world my writings, and my name :
Few in the grave have reached my living fame.
You have a house on a vast colonnade :
More wealth, than merchant ever gained in trade :
Your farms in Evesham vale rich harvests crown :
Many your flocks which feed on Bansted down.
Such you and I : like me you cannot be :
Fortune may make a cobler like to thee.

 Humble as Tillotson, as Hough resign'd ;
 Benevolent as Berkley, were there one ;
 Upright as Holt, polite as Addison ;
 Could one in eloquence with Somers vye ;
 Had Dorset's wit, or Pelham's probity ;
 Or could to one all these endowments fall ;
 Still would he snarl ; traduce and censure all.
 Seems he to you satyrical at worst ?
 I think, that man, whom none can please, is curs'd.

Ep. XLIII.

Thieves may break locks, and with your cash retire :
 Your ancient seat may be consumed by fire :
 Debtors refuse to pay you what they owe :
 Or your ungrateful field the seed you sow ;
 You may be plundered by a jilting whore :
 Your ships may sink at sea with all their store :
 Who gives to friends, so much from Fate secures ;
 That is the only wealth for ever yours.

 But do not mention them ; because you tell.
 Whenever I begin, I'm answer'd strait,

 Two ill become the busines^s but of one ;
 Be you but silent, I will speake alone.
 Great are your gifts ; but when proclaim'd around,
 The obligation dics upon the sound.

Ep. LVII.

You on one great concern your thoughts employ ;
 Still asking how to educate your boy.
 First, carefully avoid, if you are wife,
 All greek and latin masters, I advise.
 Let him both Cicero and Virgil shan ;
 Unless you wish him to be quite undone.
 Then, of a lad you never can have hope,
 Who verses makes, or reads a line in Pope.
 If he in gainful busines^s would engage,
 Teach him to sing or play upon the stage.
 Or if he is too dull to be a player,
 Teach him to job, and he may die a mayor.

Ep. LXII.

Who is that beau ? pray tell me, for you know ;
 Still near your wife ? pray tell me, who's that beau ?
 Still pouring nonsense in her glowing ear ;
 With his right elbow leaning on her chair ;
 Who on his hand the sparkling brilliant wears ;
 His hand almost as soft and white as hers ?
 That man is, though he now so gay appears,
 A lawyer, who transacts my wife's affairs.
 A lawyer that ! I vow, you make me stare !
 Surely lord Foppington's turn'd practiser !
 A lawyer that ! you are a precious 'squire,
 Fit for a Gomez in the Spanish Fryar !
 Your wife's affairs ! believe me, one so fine
 Transacts not her affairs, so much as thine,

Ep. LXIV.

The mighty ruin spread the world's wide face,
Too great to lie in any fingle place.

Ep. LXXVII.

So you a like precaution do observe,
By dining always ill, to never starve.

 I like, as well as you, a glass of sack.
 Can I love you, in uncut velvet neat,
 In an old coat, that comes from Monmouth-street ?
 Be you a friend, if you a friend would prove:
 Fine words are vain ; love is the price of love.

Ep. XVIII.

OUR friend, who lately captive died in Spain,
 Went to the other world without a stain.
 To grieve is wrong ; for leaving you alive,
 He in his dearer part doth still survive.

Ep. XIX.

MY cause concerns nor battery, nor treason:
 I sue my neighbour for this only reason,
 That late three sheep of mine to pound he drove :
 This is the point, the court would have you prove.
 Concerning Magna Charta you run on ;
 And all the perjuries of old king John :
 Then of the Edwards, and Black Prince, you rant :
 And talk of John o' Stiles, and John o' Gaunt :
 With voice and hand a mighty pother keep.

 Whom in the field the Russian troops admire;
 Take the advice, your friend at home thinks best;
 And keep it like the military chest.
 Let not your eager valour make you run
 On a pike's point, or mouth of a great gun.
 Thick sculls are best against a sabre: you
 May guard your country, and may grace it too.

Ep. XXVII.

LET me exhort you, who my neighbour are,
 As well in Yorkshire, as in Grosvenor-square:
 And have a girl, your picture to the life,
 Whose likeness is an honour to your wife;
 Broach your best Burgundy, and never spare it;
 Leave her a cask of guineas, not of claret:
 Or should she, rich and virtuous, take a cup,
 Let it be wine of her own nursing up.
 I never can agree in any sort,
 That bachelors drink claret, and you port.

 Scarce had he seen a thirteenth summer's sun !
 Ne'er may he grieve again, who drops a tear !
 Worth is short-lived ; then nothing hold too dear.

Ep. XXXII.

 That no more Roman blood for him might flow,
 He gave his breast the great decisive blow.

 Was he so great an Otho in his fall ?

Ep. XXXIX.

I at Barn-Elms a villa have of late,
Healthy, and not too large for my estate.
And here am I as rich, as you can be ;
'Tis Bath, 'tis Tunbridge, every thing to me.
Once every public place was my abode ;
Nor was I better pleased than on the road.
Now like a house, to which with ease I go ;
And to be idle, find enough to do.

Ep. LXV.

WHAT ? in long verse write epigrams ? say you.
I say, 'tis usual, and 'tis lawful too.

Sed tamen hoc longum est. solet hoc quoque, Tucca, licetque:
 Si breviora probas, disticha sola legas.
 Conveniat nobis: ut fas epigrammata longa
 Sit transire tibi; scribere, Tucca, mihi.

LXX. Ad Martianum.

SEXAGESIMA, Martiane, messis
 Acta est, &, puto, iam secunda Cottæ;
 Nec se tædia lectuli calentis
 Expertum meminit die vel uno.
 Ostendit digitum, sed impudicum,
 Alconti, Dafisque, Symmachoque,
 At nostri bene computentur anni,
 Et, quantum tetricæ tulere febres,
 Aut languor gravis, aut mali dolores,
 A vitâ meliore separentur:
 Infantes sumus, & senes videmur.
 Ætatem Priamique, Nestorisque
 Longam qui putat esse, Martiane,
 Multum decipiturque, falliturque.
 Non est vivere, sed valere, vita.

Then, they are long. This too is law and use,
If you like short; do you the diff'chā chuse.
Let us agree; the bargain does no hurt;
I may write long; and you may read the short.

Ep. LXX.

If I judge right, our good old friend Sir John
Next spring is sixty-three, or thereupon.
Yet it was never known, I've heard it said,
That in his life he one day kept his bed:
Nor ever, but in joke, held out his pulse,
To Sloane, to Mead, to Wilmot, or to Hulse:
If from our life's account, we should strike out
The hours we lose by fevers, or the gout,
By spleen, by head-ach, every other ill;
Though we seem old, we are but children still.
If any think Priam or Nestor old,
Though o'er the last three centuries had rolled,
They're much deceiv'd; for sense and reason tell,
That life is only life, when we are well.

Ned spends the nights in gaming and in riot :
What's that to you ? Cannot you sleep in quiet ?
Dick owes five hundred pound unto a friend :
What's that to you ? Does Dick ask you to lend ?
Do you forget, what is your own affair ?
Of what it more becomes you to take care ?
'Tis your affair, to pay for your own coat :
As 'tis, that none will trust you for a groat,
'Tis your affair, that your wife goes astray :
As 'tis, your daughter's portion soon to pay.
Thousands are your affairs, which I decline
To name ; for what you do is none of mine.

Ep. XXV.

In all the epigrams you write, we trace
The sweetness, and the candour of your face.
Think you, a reader will for verses call,
Without one grain of salt, or drop of gall ?
'Tis vinegar gives relish to our food :
A face that cannot smile, is never good.
Smooth tales, like sweet-meats, are for children fit :
High-season'd, like my dishes, be my wit.

To dress it, I should build my chimney new :
Without a cook, should borrow one of you.
It would consume almost a cord of wood :
Much wine and spice, to make the pasty good.
If I invite my parish ; without doubt,
They would confound a hogshead of my stout.
Then take it back ; for here it can't be drest :
And it is Ember-week ; to fast is best.

Ep. XXVIII.

Soon may your new-cut coppices revive ;
And your new-planted grove and garden thrive ;
May laughing Ceres dance around your fields ;
And your press flow with gifts Pomona yields ;
May you a fee receive in every cause ;
And hall, and houses hear you with applause ;
If in the time the long vacations lend,
You read my jokes, and censure as a friend.
I want the truth, still backward to appear :
Tell me, what you yourself would freely hear.

His lordship's mornings were in hurry spent,
What with a levee, news, and compliment ;
That his good lordship was quite wearied out ;
And for his ease gave out he had the gout.
'Tis fit a man of honour should say true :
To shew he did, what did his lordship do ?
His foot, not founder'd, he in flannels bound ;
Limp'd on a crutch ; nor touch'd with toe the ground.
What may not man with care and art obtain !
By feigning, long his lordship did not feign.

Ep. XLVII.

You might be read, and I might write in vain :
But your regard to friendship so sincere,

All know, immortal is his memory.

Ep. XLIV.

'Tis late: begin to live, old gentleman:
It would be late, if you at school began.
You a long race of misery have run;
But have not yet the race of life begun?
Your every mortaing is in labour spent,
This man to dun, or that to compliment.
With dirty stockings you to Hall resort,
A well-known party now in every court.
Through every quarter of the town you range,
Guild-hall, the Bank, the Custom-house, the Change.
Heap, scrape, oppress, use every fraudulent art;
Oh! dismal thought! your wealth and you must part!
Of cash and mortgages though huge your store:
Your graceless son will wonder 'tis no more.
And when the plumes shall o'er your coffin wave,
And sable's venal train attend your grave,
Chief mourner he, and heir to your embrace,
Shall with your whore that night supply your place.

LVI. Ad Flaccum.

TEMPORIBUS nostris ætas cùm cedat avorum,

 Ingenium sacri miraris abesse Maronis,
 Nec quemquam tantâ bella sonare tubâ.
 Sint Mæcenates, non deerunt, Flæcce, Mæcenæs ;
 Virgiliūmque tibi vel tua rura dabunt.
 Jugera perdiderat miserae vicina Cremonæ,
 Flebat & abductas Tityrus æger oves.
 Risit Tuscus eques, paupertatémque malignam
 Repulit, & celeri jussit abire fugâ.
 Accipe divitias, & vatum maximus esto :
 Tu licet & nostrum, dixit, Alexin ames.
 Adstabat domini mensis pulcherrimus ille,
 Marimoreā fundens nigra Falerna manu ;
 Et libata dabat roseis carchesia labris,
 Quæ poterant ipsum sollicitare Jovem.
 Excidit attonito pinguis Galatea poëtæ,
 Thestylis & rubras messibus usta genas :
 Protinus Italianam concepit, & arma virumque,
 Qui modò vix Culicem fleverat ore rudi.
 Quid Varos, Marsisque loquar, ditatique vatum :
 Nomina, magnus erit quos numerare labor ?
 Ergo ero Virgilius, si munera Mæcenatis
 Des mihi? Virgilius non ero, Marsus ero.

Ep. LV.

SINCE never was an age so happy yet ;
 So great the nation or the prince so great ;
 You wonder, that no Addisons remain,
 No bard to sing a fortunate Campaign.
 Let but Mæcenas, Virgil will, revive :
 Ev'n your own villa may a Virgil give.
 When Tityrus bewail'd his flocks so dear ;
 And to Cremona farms, alas ! too near ;
 Benevolently smil'd the Tuscan knight ;
 And put malignant Poverty to flight.
 A poet be, and take my purse, he said ;
 Take what you like ; take ev'n my favourite maid :
 Attendant at his board the damsel stands ;
 And fills his claret with her lilly hands ;
 Sips it with rosy lips, which might inspire
 With wanton thoughts the virtue of a friar.
 Fat Galatea haunts his soul no more ;
 Nor Thestilis, his sun-burnt country whore.
 He, who once humble themes pursued, then sung
 ' Arms and the man, whence Roman grandeur sprung.'
 ' Twere endless to recount each laurel'd shade.
 Rich and immortal by such bounty made.
 I'll Virgil be, might I like favours hope :
 No : 'tis not Virgil I will be, but Pope.

LIX. In hystum furem.

ADSPICIS hunc une contentum lumine, cuius
 Lippa sub attritâ fronte lacuna patet?
 Ne contemne caput, nihil est furacius illo:
 Non fuit Autolyci tam piceata manus.
 Hunc tu convivam cautus servare memento:
 Tunc furit, atque oculo luscus utroque videt,
 Pocula solliciti perdunt ligulâsque ministri,
 Et latet in tepido plurima mappa sanguis.
 Lapsa nec à cubito subducere pallia nescit,
 Et tectus laniis saepe duabus abit.
 Nec dormitantem vernam fraudare lucernâ
 Erubuit fallax, ardeat illa iocet.
 Si nihil invasit, puerum tunc arte deleat
 Circuit, & soleas surripit ipse suæ.

LXVII. In Cæcilianum.

HORAS quinque puer nondum tibi nunciat, & tu
 Jam conviva mihi, Cæciliæ, venis.
 Cum modò distulerint raucae vadimonis chartæ,
 Et Fleralicias laffet arena feræ.
 Curre, age, & illatos revoca, Caliste, ministros:
 Sternantur lecti: Cæciliæ, sede.
 Caldam poscis aquam; sed nondum frigida venit:
 Alget adhuc nudo clausa culina foco.
 Manè veni potius. nam cur te quinta moretur?
 Ut jentes, serò, Cæciliæ, venis.

Ep. LIX.

SEE you that fellow, with a harden'd front,
One eye with patch, and one with knave upon't?
Revere in him the captain of the band
Once rul'd by Wild; more glewy is his hand:
At table with him, take care what you do;
His eye will be more watchful than your two.
He'll make the servants hunt for spoons; and clap
His napkin in his breeches, not his lap.
Whip up a handkerchief, that's fallen down;
Or slip another Joseph on his own.
His own portmanteau carry off unseen;
And charge it on the master of the inn.

Ep. LXVII.

You as my guest appear, when 'tis not One
By Paul's, or any other clock in town.
The courts at Westminster are sitting still:
The Speaker has not read one private bill.
Make hafte, good John, and never mind your hair;
But lay the cloth; and set us each a chair.
Bring us the soupe.—There is no water yet.
Where is the lamb?—It is not on the spit.
You should be earlier, Sir; till noon why wait?
You come to breakfast most extremely late.

Ep. LXVIII.

LXVIII. Ad Entellum.

Qui Corcyrae vidit pomaria regis,
 Rus, Entelle, tuae præferat ille domus.
 Invida purpureos urat ne bruma racemos,
 Et gelidum Bacchi munera frigus edat;
 Condita perspicua vivit vindemia gemina,
 Et tegitur felix, nec tamen uva latet.
 Fœmineum lucet sic per bombycina corpus:
 Calculus in nitida sic numeratur aqua.
 Quid non ingenio voluit natura licere?
 Autumnum sterilis ferre jubetur hyems.

Ep. LXVIII.

He, who hath seen the gardens at Versailles,
When he sees yours, will think their beauty fails.
Here, left the purple branch be scorch'd by frost,
And Bacchus' gifts by cold devouring lost,
Shut in the glass the living vintage lies,
Securely cloath'd, yet naked to the eyes:
Through finest lace so female graces beam;
Pebbles are counted in the lucid stream.
What will not Nature yield to human skill?
When sterl winter shall be autumn still.

Ep. LXIX.

THE ancients all your veneration have:
You like no poet on this side the grave.
Yet, pray, excuse me; if to please you, I
Can hardly think it worth my while to die.

Ep. LXXIV.

A DOCTOR lately was a captain made:
It is a change of title, not of trade.

Ep. LXXV.

Tom about One was from the tavern come:
And with his load through Fleet-street reeling home;
Striking his toe against the Lord knows what,
Into the kennel he directly shot.

What must Tom do ? he could not stir or speak :
One only lad he had ; and he so weak,
He scarce could bear his cloak ; and wanted might
To set the fallen monument upright.
But Tom's kind stars did present help supply :
By chance an empty herse was passing by :
The lad screams out, « Good gentlemen, I pray,
« One moment stop, and take a corps away.
There's no great ceremony with the dead :
They squeeze him in, no-matter, heels or head.
Thus Fortune, in gay humour, did contrive,
To make of Tom the best dead man alive.

Ep. LXXVI.

TELL me, say you, and tell me without fear
The truth, the thing I most desire to hear.
This is your language, when your works you quote :
And when you plead, this is your constant note.
'Tis most inhuman longer to deny,
What you so often press so earnestly.
To the great truth of all then lend an ear :
‘ You are uneasy when the truth you hear.

Ep. LXXIX.

ALL the companions of her grace, I'm told,
Are either very plain, or very old.
With these she visits : these she drags about,
To play, to ball, assembly, auctions, rout :
With these she sups : with these she takes the air.
Without such foils is lady dutchess fair ?

WHAT do you think is lady Betty's oath ?
'Tis neither split me, dem me, faith, nor troth :
Not by heaven's powers, or those of her own face :
But her dear drop, and dearer Brussels lace.
She calls them her dear creatures, hugs, and kisses ;
And loves them better than both little misses.
Protefts, if they were ravish'd from her power,
She could not possibly survive that hour.
Then grant, kind heaven, when next she sees the play,
Some hand, like Pony's, snatch them both away.

THIS is that coat, so often by me sung,
 Upon whose praise the raptur'd reader hung.
 His lordship's once ; a gift for poet meet :
 In which I walk'd respected in the street.
 New, and with all its glossy honours on,
 Worthy its donor, it divinely shone.
 Now old, a hangman scorns it for his fees :
 And if it shines at all, it shines with grease.
 All things by time, and length of years decline :
 Is this his lordship's coat ? for shame ! 'tis mine.

Ep. LI.

I AM no genius, you affirm : and why ?
 Because my verses please by brevity.
 But you, who twice ten ponderous volumes write
 Of mighty battles, are a man of might.
 Like Prior's bust, my work is neat, but small :
 Yours like the dirty giants in Guildhall.

Ep. LIII.

BELIEVING hear, what you deserve to hear :
 Your birth-day, as my own, to me is dear.

Or snipe or woodcock taken in my glade ;

As soon as my own father, or my brother.
But now the fields with chattering magpies ring :

VAINLOVE the live-long day strolls up and down,
 To view the choicest rarities in town.
 Ravish'd admires a Ganymede's soft mien,
 Not such as is at common auctions seen ;
 But an old painting, capital, and rare ;
 Shewn to the curious, and preserv'd with care.
 Then takes an inlaid table from its case :
 Searches a china jar, or marble vase.
 A Turkey carpet measures ten times o'er ;
 And grieves, it is too little for his floor.
 Of right japan then judges by his nose :
 In statues dares sir Andrew's taste expose :
 Finds the French ware too much to glass allied ;
 The Dresden therefore marks, and sets aside.
 Baskets of filligrane he then takes up ;
 By Kent innobled weighs a golden cup.
 Numbers the jewels that a ring may bear ;
 And wants a pendant for a lady's ear ;
 Looks till he diamonds of true water meets ;
 And cheapens them, tho' half as big as Pitt's.
 At length fatigu'd, the hour of dinner come,
 He buys, and bears two glass decanters home.

 Tortorem metuis? podagrâ, cheragrâque fetatur
 Caïus ; & mallet verbera mille pati.
 Quod nec manè vomis, nec cunnum, Condyle, lingis,
 Non mavis, quām ter Caïus esse tuus?

XCV. De Hippocrate.

SANTONICA medicata dedit mihi pocula virgâ,
 Os hominis! mulsum me rogat Hippocrates.
 Tam stupidus numquam nec tu puto, Glauce, fuisti,
 Chalcea donanti Chrysea qui dederas.
 Dulce aliquis munus pro munere poscit amaro?
 Accipiat, sed si potat in elleboro.

XCVI. De Athenagorâ.

ALFICUS antè fuit, coepit nunc Olficus esse,
 Uxorem postquam duxit Athenagoras.
 Nomen Athenagoræ credis, Callistrate, verum?
 Si scio, dispeream, quis sit Athenagoras.
 Sed puto me verum Callistrate, dicere nomen:
 Non ego, sed vester peccat Athenagoras.

XCII. De Herode.

CLINICUS Herodes trullam subduxerat ægro:
 Deprensus dixit; stulte, quid ergo bibis?

XCVIII. Ad

Anxious betimes to every statesman low
 He bows ; much lower than to him you bow.
 Behold him with a dun at either ear,
 ‘ Pray, ‘ pay, the word’ ; a word you never hear.
 Fear you a cudgel ? view his gouty state ;
 Which he would change for many a broken pate.
 You know no morning qualm ; no costly whore :
 Think then, though not a lord, that you are more.

Ep. XCV.

WHAT blest assurance ! when my doctor thought
 To get my claret, for his wormwood draught.
 Glaucus of old was not a greater ass,
 Who gave his golden arms for arms of brass.
 But I will send it ; if he will agree
 To drink it from the bottle sent to me.

Ep. XCVI.

Bob's name was Booby, now 'tis Bou—ou—bee :
 His wife would not plain Booby be, not she.
 If we doubt which is right, and which is wrong,
 I shall not know, if Bob is Bob, ere long.
 I think that Booby is his real name :
 If I mistake ; is Bob or I to blame ?

Ep. XCVII.

A QUACK, who stole his patient's cup, did cry,
 Caught in the fact, ‘ What ? would you drink, and die ?

Ep. XCVIII.

XCVIII. Ad Julianum.

RUMPI TUR invidiâ quidam, carissime Juli;
 Quòd me Roma legit, rumpitur invidiâ.
 Rumpitur invidiâ, quòd turbâ semper in omni
 Monstramur digito, rumpitur invidiâ.
 Rumpitur invidiâ, tribuit quòd Cæsar uterque:
 Jus mihi natorum, rumpitur invidiâ.
 Rumpitur invidiâ, quòd rus mihi dulce sub urbe est,
 Parvâque in urbe domus, rumpitur invidiâ.
 Rumpitur invidiâ, quòd sum jacundus amicis,
 Quòd conviva frequens, rumpitur invidiâ.
 Rumpitur invidiâ, quòd amamus, quódque probamus:
 Rumpatur, quisquis rumpitur invidiâ.

XCIX. Ad Quintum Ovidium.

VINDEMIA RUM non ubique proventus
 Cessavit, Ovidi; pluvia profuit grandis.
 Centum Coranus amphoras aquæ fecit.

C. Ad librum.

Tu qui longa potes dispendia ferre viarum,
 I, liber, absentis pignus amicitiae.
 Vilis eras, fateor, si te nunc mitteret emptor.
 Grande tui pretium munera auctor erit.
 Multum, crede mihi, refert, à fonte bibatur
 Quæ fluit, an pigro quæ stupet unda lacu.

Ep. XCVIII.

BURSTING with envy is a wretch unknown ;
 Because my works have taken with the town.
 With envy bursting, that the admiring throng
 Point to their poet, as they pass along.
 With envy bursting, that by royal grace,
 Under my sovereign I enjoy a place.
 With envy bursting, at my house in town,
 And at my little box on Bansted Down.
 Bursting with envy, that I am careft
 By all my friends, to all a welcome guest.
 From love, and from esteem, if envy springs ;
 May he e'en fret his guts to fiddle-strings !

Ep. XCIX.

PRAY, don't imagine without reason :
 The vintage is all lost this season :
 The heavy rains, which fell, produce
 A hundred pipes for Dashwell's use.

Ep. CII.

My book, a better traveller, I send,
 To shew my honour for an absent friend.
 The value from a bookseller were small ;
 The author's present is the all in all.
 Much better tastes the water, which you take
 From a spring-head, than from a standing lake.

Ep. CV.

CV. De geminis fratribus.

Quæ nova tam similis genuit tibi Leda ministros?

Quæ capta est cygno nuda Lacæna alio?

Dat faciem Pollux Hiero, dat Castor Afillo:

Atque in utroque nitet Tyndaris ore soror.

Ita Therapnæis si forma fuisse Amyclis,

Cum vicere duas dona minora deas;

Manisse Helene, Phrygiāmque redissest in Idam,

Dardanius gemino cum Ganymede Paris.

M A R.

Ep. CV.

WHENCE so much likeness, so much sweetness, grew?
To bear these twins did Leda brood a-new?
If this is Pollux, that is Castor's face:
In both alike there shines the sister's grace.
When rivals yielded to the Cyprian queen;
At Sparta's court had so much beauty been,
The Phrygian Paris had reversed his deed;
And leaving Helen, stole each Ganymede.

FESTINATA prior decimi mihi cura libelli:
Elapsum manibus nunc revocavit opus.
Nota leges quædam, sed limâ rasa recenti:
Pars nova majus erit; lector, utrique fave:
Lector opes noſtre, quem cām mihi Roma dedit; .
Nil, tibi quod demas, majus habemus, ait.
Pigra per hunc fugies ingratæ flumina. Lothes,
Et meliore tui parte superflues eris.

Epigram II.

THE verses in this book too soon took air:
My want of care at first renew'd my care.
Some, that are old, you here retouch'd will find:
The greater part are new: to both be kind.
When Fate to me a constant reader gave;
Receive, she said, the greatest boon I have.
By this beyond oblivion's stream arrive;
And in your better part by this survive.
Statues may moulder; and the clown unbred
Scoff at young Ammon's horse without his head.
But finish'd writings theft and time defy;
The only monuments, which cannot die.

Pl. III.

III. Ad Priscum.

VERNACULORUM dicta, sordidum dentem,
 Et fœda linguæ proba circulatricis,
 Quæ sulphurato nohit empta ramento
 Vatiniorum proxeneta fractorum,
 Poëta quidam clancularius spargit ;
 Et vult videri nostra. credis hoc, Prisci,
 Voce ut loquatur psittacus coturnicis,
 Et concupiscat esse Canus ascaules ?
 Procul à libellis nigra sit meis fama,
 Quos rumor alba gemmeus vehit pennas.
 Cur ego laborem notus esse tam pravè,
 Constatre gratis cùm silentium possit ?

IV. Ad Mamurram.

Qui legis Oedipodem, caligantemque Thyesten,
 Colchidas, & Scyllas, quid nisi monstra legis ?
 Quid tibi raptus Hylas, quid Parthenopaeus, & Atys ?
 Quid tibi dormitor proderit Endymion ?
 Exutusve puer pennis labentibus ? aut qui
 Odit amatrices Hermaphroditus aquas ?
 Quid tevana juvant miseræ ludibria chartæ ?
 Hoc lege, quod possit dicere vita, meum est.
 Non hic Centauros, non Gorgonas, Harpyiásque
 Invenies : hominem pagina nostra sapit.
 Sed non vis, Mamurra, tuos cognoscere mores,
 Nec te scire : legas aīta Callimachi.

Ep. III.

THE porter's joke, the chairman's low conceit,
The dirty style of angry billingsgate,
Such as a stroling tinker would not use,
Nor hawker of old cloaths, or dreadful news,
A certain poet privately disperses,
And fain would fob them off for Martial's verses.
Will then the parrot steal the raven's note ?
At country wakes Italians strain their throat ?
Far from my writings be th' envenom'd lye :
My name on purer wings shall mount the sky.
Rather than strive an evil fame to own,
Cannot I hold my tongue, and die unknown ?

Ep. IV.

WHO reads of Oedipus or Scylla now,
As well may read of Warwick's monstrous cow.
Leave all the stories of a cock and bull,
Which you in Ovid find, to boys at school.
From idle tales what pleasure will remain ?
Read for to live ; all reading else is vain.
Never on monsters my invention ran ;
My every page an essay is on man.
If you dislike your self at all to know ;
Proceed in your romance, transported beau.

Ep. VIII.

VIII. De Paullā.

NUBERE Paulla cupit nobis, ego ducere Paullam
Nolo: anus est. vellem, si magis esset anus.

XI. In Calliodorum.

NIL aliud loqueris, quam Thesea, Pirithoūmque,
Téque putas Pyladi, Calliodore, parem.
Dispeream, si tu Pyladi præstare matellam
Dignus es, aut porcos pascere Pirithoi.
Donavi tamen, inquis, amico millia quinque,
Et lotam (ut multum) téque quatérque togam.
Quid! quòd nil umquam Pyladi donavit Orestes?
Qui donat quamvis plurima, plura negat.

XIII. Ad Tuccam.

CUM cathedralios portet tibi rheda ministros,
Et Libys in longo palvere sudet eques;
Stratáque non unas cingant triclinia Baias,
Et Thetis anguento palleat uncta tuo;
Candida Setini resplendent crystalla trientes,
Dormiat in plumâ nec meliore Venus:
Ad nocturna jaces fastos limina moschæ,
Et madet (heu) lacrymis janua surda tuis;
Urere nec miserum cessant suspiria pectus.
Vis dicam, malè sit cur tibi, Tucca? bene est.

XIV. Ad

Ep. VIII.

Ma would the widow wed : she's old, say I :
But if she older were; I would comply.

Ep. XI.

PIRITHOUS his name you oft repeat :
And equal Pylades in your conceit.
Not fit to fill to Pylades his wine ;
Not fit to feed Pirithous his swine.
Once, as you boast, you gave your friend a note-
For fifty shillings ; twice an old scour'd coat.
True ; you than Pylades more presents make :
He never gave, he let Orestes take.

Ep. XIII.

ALTHOUGH your berlin always moves in state ;
And a long train on horseback with it sweat ;
Although your house, in many an airy room,
Receives a flowery garden's rich perfume ;
Although your glass sparkle with burgandy ;
No dutchess on a softer bed can lie ;
You for a paltry actress sigh in vain,
Stung to the heart whole nights by her disdain.
Little you gues, sweet Sir, what 'tis doth tease ye ;
An easy fortune makes you thus uneasy.

Ep. XIV.

XIV. Ad Crisum.

CEDERE de nostris nulli te dicis amicis.

Sed sit ut hoc verum, quid, rogo Crispe, facis?

Mutua cùm peterem festertia quinque, negásti:

Non caperet nummos cùm gravis arca tuos.

Quando fabae nobis modium farrise dediti,

Cùm tua Niliacus rura colonus aret?

Quando brevis gelidae missa est toga tempore brumae

Argenti venit quando scibra mihi?

Nil aliud video, quo te credamus amicum,

Quàm quòd me coram pedere, Crispe, soles.

XVIII. De Mario.

Nec vocat ad coenam Marius, nec munera mittit,

Nec spondet, nec vult credere: sed nec habet.

Turba tamen non deest, sterilem quæ curet amicum.

Eheu quàm fatuæ sunt tibi, Roma, togæ!

XXI. Ad Sextum.

SCRIBERE te, quæ vix intelligat ipse Modestus,

Et vix Claranus, quid rogo, Sexte, juvat?

Non lectore tuis opus est, sed Apolline libris:

Judice te major Cinna Marone fuit.

Sic tua laudentur: sanè mea carmina, Sexte,

Grammaticis placeant, & finè Grammaticis.

XXIII. De

Ep. XIV.

You say, I have no better friend than you :
 What do you do, to make me think it true ?
 I wanted but five pounds, which you deny ;
 Though you have useless thousands lying by.
 From all the fertile harvests of your plain,
 When did you send to me one single grain ?
 When a short cloak, to guard me from the cold ?
 To line my purse, when a small piece of gold ?
 I see no mark of friendship on your part ;
 But, before me you are free enough to fart.

Ep. XVIII.

No dinners ! presents ! he is no man's bail !
 He cannot lend, because his tickes fail !
 Yet crouds attend his future power and grace.
 For fools of all sorts London is the place.

Ep. XXI.

WHAT pleasure is it, that your writings are Almost too hard for Bentley or for Hare ?
 You write not to be read, but criticis'd :
 Persius you follow ; Virgil is despis'd.
 This be your praise : but may my every line,
 Or with a comment, or without it shine.

Ep. XXII.

XXIII. De M. Antonio.

JAM numerat placido felix Antonius ævo
 Quindecies actas Primis Olympiadas :
 Præteritisque dies, & tutos respicit annos :
 Nec metuit Lethes jam propioris aquas.
 Nulla recordanti lux est ingrata, gravisque :
 Nulla subit, cujus non meminisse velit.
 Ampliat ætatis spatum sibi vir bonus : hoc est
 Vivere bis, vitâ posse priore frui.

XXXII. De imagine Marci Antonii, ad Cæditianum.

HÆC mihi quæ colitur violis pictura, rosisque,
 Quos referat vultus, Cæditive, rogas ?
 Talis erat Marcus mediis Antonius annis
 Primus : in hōc juvenem se videt ore senex.
 Ars utinam mores, animumque effingere posset !
 Pulchrior in terris nulla tabella foret.

XXXIII. Ad Munatum Gallum.

SIMPLICIOR priscis, Munati Galle, Sabinis,
 Cecropium superas qui bonitate seneim ;
 Sic tibi consoceri claros retinere Penates
 Perpetuâ natæ det face casta Venus :
 Ut tu, si viridi tinctos ærugine versus
 Fortè malus livor dixerit esse meos,
 Ut facis, à nobis abigas : nec scribere quemquam
 Talia contendas carmina, qui legitur.
 Hunc servare modum nostri novere libelli ;
 Parcer personis, dicere de vitiis.

Ep. XXIII.

His lordship is arriv'd at seventy-five,
 With all the ease and comfort life can give.
 Safe from the voyage of a length of years,
 Looks back with joy ; nor death approaching fears.
 Not one of all his days can irksome find :
 Not one, but he with pleasure calls to mind.
 Thus a good man prolongs his mortal date ;
 Lives twice, enjoying thus his former state.

Ep. XXXII.

THIS picture see ! on which no cost I spare ;
 But set in gold, and in my snuff-box wear.
 At twenty-one such was lord Worthy's face ;
 Who, now grey-hair'd, here views what once he was,
 Could but the piece his mind and morals shew ;
 'Twould choicer be than Raphael ever drew.

Ep. XXXIII.

BLEST with the morals of a former age,
 In goodness passing the Athenian sage,
 May your fair daughter's virtues fix her spouse,
 And his allies fast friends unto your house,
 If when you meet a malice-tinctur'd line,
 And flandering Fame report that it is mine,
 You vindicate your friend ; and boldly plead,
 I ne'er compose, what 'tis a shame to read :
 For in my writings 'tis my constant care,
 To lash the vices, but the persons spare.

XXXVI. In Munnam.

IMPROBA Massiliæ quidquid fumaria cogunt,
 Accipit æstatem quisquis ab igne cadus;
 A te, Munna, venit: miseris tu mittis amicis
 Per freta, per longas toxica faeva vias:
 Nec facili pretio, sed quo contenta Falerni
 Testa sit, aut cellis Setia cara suis.
 Non venias quare tam longo tempore Romam,
 Hæc, puto, causa tibi est; ne tua vina bibas.

XXXVIII. Ad Calenum.

O molles tibi quindecim, Calene,
 Quos cum Sulpiciâ tuâ jugales
 Indulxit deus & peregit annes:
 O nox omnis & hora, quæ notata est
 Caris litoris Indici lapillis!
 O quæ prælia, quas utrimque pugnas
 Felix lectulus, & lucerna vidit
 Nimbis ebria Nicerotianis!
 Vixisti tribus, ô Calene, lustris;
 Ætas hæc tibi tota computatur,
 Et solos numeras dies mariti.
 Ex illis tibi si diu rogatam
 Lucem redderet Atropos vel unam,
 Malles, quam Pyliam quater senectam.

Ep. XXXVI.

ALL the worst cyder Hereford could make,
 Mixt up, and boil'd, for taste and colour's sake,
 A hundred miles you by the carrier send :
 Have you a mind to poison every friend ?
 And make us pay such monstrous prices for't,
 It dearer comes than Malaga or Port.
 Perhaps you now have been so long from town,
 For fear of drinking cyder, once your own.

Ep. XXXVIII.

Twice seven years, and one above it,
 You have been yok'd with Mrs. Loveit.
 A heavenly blessing such a wife !
 You must have led a charming life !
 Oh ! happy days ! in which no hour
 You can forget in twenty-four.
 What nights ! still spent in curtain-lecture !
 What struggling, who should be director !
 What blest debates ! which oft have lasted,
 Until the candle quite was wasted.
 The number of your years I ween,
 Don't even now exceed fifteen :
 I count not those, which time did give ;
 But those, you felt yourself alive.
 And if, like these, Fate add one more ;
 That one may seem to you fourscore.

XLIII. Pbilerotem.

SEPTIM⁴ jam, Phileros, tibi conditur uxor in agro.
Plus nulli, Phileros, quam tibi reddit ager.

XLIV. Ad Q. Ovidium.

QUINT⁴ Caledonios Ovidi visure Britannos,
Et viridem Tethyn, Oceanumque patrem:
Ergo Numæ colles, & Nomentana relinquis.
Otia? nec retinet rûsque focûsque senem?
Gaudia tu differs: at non & stamina differt
Atropos, atque omnis scribitur hora tibi.
Præstiteris caro (quis non hoc laudet?) amico,
Ut potior vitâ sit tibi sancta fides.
Sed reddare tuis tandem mansure Sabinis,
Téque tuas numeres inter amicitias.

XLVIII. Parat convivium.

NUNCIAT octavam Phariæ sua turba juvencæ,
Et pilata redit jämque, subítque cohors.
Temperat hæc thermas, nimios prior hora vapores
Halat, & immodico sexta Nerone calet.
Stella, Nepos, Cani, Cerealis, Flacce, venitis?
Septem sigma capit, sex sumus, adde Lupum.
Exoneraturas ventrem mihi villica malvas
Attulit, & varias, quas habet hortus, opes.

Ep. XLIII.

Seven wives ! and in one grave ! there is not found
On the whole globe a richer spot of ground.

Ep. XLIV.

Do you an India voyage then design ?
And twice to cross the Tropic and the Line ?
In your old age quit Paul's and Harrow spire ?
A cheerful house, and comfortable fire ?
Postpone not life : life still is posting on:
And makes you debtor for each moment gone;
A noble proof of friendship you afford,
Who hold your life less sacred than your word.
Soon to your friends return ! and in your breast
Leave for your self a place amongst the rest.

Ep. XLVIII.

The clock strikes two : now every powder'd spark
Sallies self-satisfied into the Park.
From one to two himself he did peruse :
From twelve to one his chocolate and news.
At three precisely I shall dine at home ;
Will, Jack, and Tom, and Dick, and you will come :
That makes us six ; I have one place to spare ;
Bring Ned ; and listen to your bill of fare.
A wholesome sallad will adorn the board,
Luxurious, as my garden will afford.

In quibus est lactuca sedens, & seftile porrum;
 Nec deest ruftatrix mentha, nec herba salax.
 Sefta coronabunt rutaos eva lacertos,
 Et medium thynni de sale sumen erit.

 Hœdus inhumani raptus ab ore lupi.
 Et, quæ non egeant ferro structoris Ofelia,
 Et faba fabrorum, prototomique rudes.
 Pullus ad hæc, coenisque tribus jam yerna superficia

 De Nomentanâ vinum finè face lagenâ,
 Quæ bis Frontino cepule plena fuit.
 Accedent finè felle joci, nec manè timenda,
 Libertas, & nil quod tacuisse velis.
 De Prafino conviva meus, Venetóque loquatur &
 Nec facient quemquam pocula nostra reum.

E. Ad Faustinum.

SIDER A jam Tyrius Phryxei respicit agni
 Taurus, & alternum Cañosa fugit hyems.
 Ridet ager, vestitur humus, vestitur & arbos:
 Iſmarium pellex Attica plorat Ityn.
 Quos, Faustine, dies, qualem tibi Roma Ravennam
 Abſtulit? ô ſole, ô tunicata quies!
 O nemus, ô fontes, ſolidumque madentis arenæ.

Sed

The lettuce cooking ; leakes that claim the knife ;
 Mint good for wine ; and rocket for the wife :
 Parsnips with eggs shall hide a salted fish :
 Delicious pickled pork, another dish.
 Lamb, which perhaps you'll think is better meat ;
 A morsel, Reynard had a mind to eat.
 Cutlets, which want no carving till they're cold :
 The youngest sprouts ; and beans that are too old.
 Fowl, and a ham that thrice appear'd before,
 Ripe nonpareils for those, who wish for more.
 Parsons his stout (I entertain with beer)
 Brew'd when Lord Mayor elect the second year.
 No dangerous secret ; no ill-natur'd jest ;
 No freedoms, which next day will break your rest :
 But tales of betts the last Newmarket season :
 None of my friends shall in his cups talk treason.

Ep. ET.

Now the gay hours to meet the Pleiads run ;
 And Winter flies before the vernal sun ;
 Now smiles new-clad the woodland and the plain ;
 And plaintive Philomel renew's her strain ;
 What happy days the town now steals from Kent !
 There in pure air and ease unformal spent !
 Think on your grove, your fountains, Dover's strands,
 And o'er the waves her high commanding lands ;
 Which to your bed a double view afford,
 Of ships at sea, and ships in harbour moor'd.

Sed neque Marcelli, Pompeianumque, nec illuc
 Sunt triplices thermæ : nec fora juncta quater :
 Nec Capitolini summum penetrale Tonantis,
 Quæque nitent cœlo proxima templa suo.
 Dicere te lassum quoties ego credo Quirino ?
 Quæ tua sunt, tibi habe : quæ mea, redde mihi.

LXII. Ad magistrum ludi.

LUDI magister, parce simplici turbæ :
 Sic te frequentes audiant capillati,
 Et delicatæ diligat chorus mensæ :
 Nec calculator, nec notarius velox
 Majore quisquam circulo coronetur.
 Albæ leone flammeo calent luces,
 Tostamque fervens Julius coquit messem.
 Cirrata loris horridis Scythæ pellis,
 Quâ vapulavit Marfyas Celenæus,
 Ferulæque tristes, sceptra paedagogorum,
 Cessent, & Idus dormiant in Octobres :
 Æstate pueri si valent, satis discunt.

LXIII. Epit.

What, though there be no crowded theater ;
No senate, and no courts of justice there ;
No palace, where our honour'd monarch lies ;
No Paul's with gilded cross invade the skies ;
I seem to hear you thus reproach the town ;
Keep to yourself your things ; give me my own.

Ep. LXII.

Thou monarch of eight parts of speech,
Who sweep with birch a youngster's breech,
Oh ! now awhile withhold your hand !
So may the trembling crop-hair'd band
Around your desk attentive hear ;
And pay you love instead of fear :
So may yours ever be as full,
As writing or as dancing school.
The scorching dog-day is begun ;
The harvest roasting in the sun :
Each Bridewell keeper, though requir'd
To use the lash, is too much tir'd.
Let ferula and rod together
Lie dormant, till the frosty weather.
Boys do improve enough in reason,
Who miss a fever in this season.

Ep. LXIII.

LXIII. Epitaphium nobilis matronae.

MARMORA parva quidem, sed non cessura, viator,
 Mausoli saxis Pyramidumque legis.
 Bis mea Romano spectata est vita Terento,
 Et nihil extremos perdidit ante rogos.
 Quinque dedit pueros, totidem mihi Juno puellas:
 Clauerunt omnes lumina nostra manus.
 Contigit & thalami mihi gloria rara, fuitque
 Una pudicitiae mentula nota meæ.

LXX. Ad Potitam.

Quod mihi vix unus toto liber exeat anno,
 Desidiae tibi sum, docte Potite, reus.
 Justius at quanto mirere, quod exeat unus,
 Labantur toti cum mihi saepe dies.
 Nunc resalutantes video nocturnus amicos:
 Gratulor & multis; nemo, Potite, mihi.
 Nunc ad luciferam signat mea gemma Dianam:
 Nunc me prima sibi, nunç sibi quincta rapit.
 Nunc consul, praetorve tenet, reducesque choreas:
 Auditur toto saepe poëta die.
 Sed nec causidico possis impune negare,
 Nec si te rhetor, grammaticusve rogent:
 Balnea post decimam lasso, centumque petuntur.
 Quadrantes. fiet quando, Potite, liber?

LXXIV. Ad Romanam.

Ep. LXIII.

By this small stone as great remains are hid,
 As sleep in an Egyptian pyramid,
 Here lies a matron, for her years rever'd :
 Who through them all with spotless honour steer'd.
 Five sons, as many daughters, nature gave,
 Who drop'd their pious tears into her grave.
 Nor her least glory, though too rarely known,
 One man she held most dear, and one alone.

Ep. LXX.

THAT scarce a piece I publish in a year :
 Idle perhaps to you I may appear.
 But rather, that I write at all, admire ;
 When I am often robbed of days entire.
 Now with my friends the evening I must spend :
 To those preferr'd my compliments must send,
 Now at the witneſſing a will make one :
 Hurried from this to that, my morning's gone.
 Some office must attend ; or else some ball ;
 Or else my lawyer's summons to the hall.
 Now a rehearsal, now a concert hear ;
 And now a latin play at Westminster.
 Home after ten return, quite tir'd and dos'd.
 When is the piece, you want, to be compos'd ?

Ep. LXXIV.

TIR'D with the town, too much of life I've spent,
 In formal lvees, and dull compliment.

For long attendance what reward we meet !
 A word ! at most a dinner from the great !
 One hour to Figg did greater gains afford,
 Much greater, for a flourish of his sword.
 Were I to pay the labours of my muse ;
 (Small her desert) not Chelsea fields I'd chuse ;
 Nor Hybla's honey ; nor Arabia's spice ;
 Nor pleasant gardens, hung on Highgate's rise,
 O'erlooking Hackney-marshes fed with sheep.
 Ask you, what is it then I want? — to sleep.

Ep. LXXVI.

Oh ! Fortune ! is your justice lost ?
 Behold this man, no knight o' th' post :
 Who is no alien, French, or Swiss :
 But Englishman, and Cockney is :
 Pleasant, sincere, good-natur'd, meek,
 Well skill'd in latin and in greek :
 Who hath no individual crime,
 But that he is possest with rhyme.
 Should he, half starv'd, wear shabby black ?
 When grooms have gold upon their back.

Ep. LXXIX.

Four miles from town his lordship's buildings stand :
 So does Tom's cottage with a bit of land.
 A marble green-house lately built my lord :
 Tom for his flowers erects a shed of board.

Stridentesque feram flatus Aquilonis iniqui,

Et patiar nimbos, excipiámque nubes.

Sed si non fias quadrante beatior uno,

Per gemitus nostros, ingenuásque cruces :

Parce, procer, lasso, vanósque remitte labores,

Qui tibi non prosunt, & mihi, Galle, nocent.

His park with oaks his lordship planted round ;
 Tom put a hundred acorns in the ground.
 My lord was treasurer : Tom overseer ;
 As great, in his opinion, as the peer.
 As the ox burst the frog, (so fables speak)
 Aping my lord, I fear poor Tom will break.

Ep. LXXX.

At Chenevix' poor little master cries,
 When boxes, seals, and rings, and dolls he spies ;
 And from his soul sincerest sorrows come,
 That he can't buy the room, and bear it home.
 How many with dry eyes act master's part ?
 And, when they smile, for trifles sob at heart.

Ep. LXXXII.

If your affairs my diligence could mend,
 Early and late I ready would attend :
 Expos'd to storms, when angry winds do blow ;
 And on my breast receive the driving snow.
 But if you not one farthing happier are,
 By my fatigue, and by my generous care ;
 Spare one worn out, oh ! spare a labour vain,
 Which helps not you, but gives me real pain.

Ep. LXXXV.

 Close to the river bought a piece of land.

The winter tides prevail'd against the mound ;
 And in strong torrents overflow'd his ground.
 His cast-off bark, which luckily lay near,
 He fill'd with stones, converted to a pier,
 And stop'd the breach : and, who would have believ'd ?
 That a sunk ship a tar's affairs retriev'd.

Ep. C.

Fool that you are to mix your verse with mine ;
 Of theft indicted by each other line.
 To herd with lions will the fox delight ?
 Eagles resemblance bear to birds of night ?
 Can you expect to run with one leg good,
 When you another have, which is of wood ?

Ep. CI.

COULD witty Rochester return again,
 With jokes his merry prince to entertain ;
 And he and you could with the monarch fit ;
 He'd silence Rochester for want of wit.

Ep. CIII.

MY friends, who round mount Caburn do abide,
 Drink Lewes' stream, or o'er her carpet ride ;
 Are you not anxious for your poet's fame ?
 His honours yours, and yours his deathless name.
 Much Twick'nam owes to Pope : now he is gone,
 May you not wish some poet for your own ?

 Aspera si geritis corda, redire licet.

You without me, now thirty years at least,
In social mirth enjoy your Christmas feast.
While in this fair metropolis we stay,
Our hairs, alas! (as soon you'll see) are grey.
If well receiv'd, with you will we remain :
If not ; a chaise conveys us back again.

WITHER, ah! whither, Idle Muse,
Stray you from Dodsley's shop so spruce?
To minister of high condition,
Less us'd to poem, than petition?
By him received, you may lie still,
With that, or with a tradesman's bill.
Or if to verse he should incline;
More to his own, perhaps, than mine.
Are you content to lie on stall,
A common prostitute to all?
Go then, and catch some loitering beau,
Whilst he is walking to and fro;

XXXII. In Cæcilianum.

ATREUS Cæcilius concubitarum
 Sic illas quasi filios Thyeſtæ
 In partes lacerat, secātque mille.
 Gustu protinus has edes in ipſo,
 Has primâ feret alterâve cœnâ ;
 Has cœnâ tibi tertîâ reponet.
 Hinc seras epidipnidas parabit ;
 Hinc pistor fatuas facit placentas ;
 Hinc & multiplices struit tabellas ;
 Et notas caryotidas theatris :
 Hinc exit varium coco minutal,
 Ut lentem positam fabámque crédas :
 Boletos imitatur, & botellos,
 Et caudam cybii, brevésque mænas :
 Hinc cellarius experitur artes,
 Ut condat vario vafer sapore
 In rutæ folium capellianæ.
 Sic implet gabatas, paropsidásque,
 Et leves scutulas, cavásque lances.
 Hoc lautum putat, hoc putat venustum,
 Unum ponere ferculis tot affem.

Who in the playhouses delights,
 Or Tom's, or Cocoa-tree, or White's.
 How few will take from mice their due !
 Nor will your follies by those few
 Be told ; but when their stories flag
 Of some new bet, or running nag.

Ep. XXXII.

Thou Atreus of a cucumber,
 Which, like Thyestes' sons, you tear,
 And in ten thousand pieces slice,
 And in ten thousand ways disguise.
 This in your soup at first you use :
 And this in every course produce.
 Hence your confectioner still takes
 His jellies, sweetmeats, and his cakes ;
 Decking his dishes in a row
 Of high-raised pyramids for shew.
 Your cook from this hath found the means,
 To furnish us with pease and beans ;
 And by his magic art create
 A mushroom, sausage, cod, or scate.
 Your house-keeper, as far as can go
 Her seasoning art, turns this to mango.
 Thus you, who fill by this device
 Your dishes of all sorts and fize,
 Would modish and polite be thought
 By serving up one single groat.

 Solus cœno, Fabulle, non libenter.

XL. In Charidemum.

CUNARUM fueras motor, Charideme, mearum;
 Et pueri custos, affiduísque comes.
 Jam mihi nigrescunt tonsâ sudaria barbâ,
 Et queritur labris puncta puella meis.
 Sed tibi non crevi: te noster villicus horret:
 Té dispensator, te domus ipsa pavet.
 Ludere nec nobis, nec tu permittis amare:
 Nil mihi vis, & vis cuncta licere tibi.
 Corripis, observas, quereris, suspiria ducis;
 Et vix à ferulis abstinet ira manum.
 Si Tyrios sumpsi cultus, unxive capillos;

Ep. XXXV.

JACK buys an ancient cottage, dismal, foul,
 And scarce a decent harbour for an owl,
 Near to an hospitable neighbour's seat.
 Jack will not lodge so well as he will eat.

Ep. XXXVI.

THAT I your invitation should decline,
 Why do you wonder? why do you repine?
 When hundreds you invite to me unknown:
 I do not choose, dear friend, to dine alone.

Ep. XL.

You were for ever by my infant side;
 My guardian, my companion, and my guide.
 The razor now grows blunt against my beard;
 And every girl complains that it is hard.
 With you I am but little master still:
 And all my servants tremble at your will.
 To game, or to intrigue, I must not dare:
 All things to you, to me none, lawful are.
 You check, remark, complain, and cry 'Good God!
 And in your passion scarce forbear the rod.
 If my toupee, or velvet, I put on;
 You say, Oh! how unlike your father gone!
 You count each bumper with a serious look;
 As if from your own vault the wine I took.
 Such censor I no longer suffer can:
 Pray, ask my maid, if I am not a man.

XLV. Ad senem orbum

Orbus es, & locuples, & Bruto consule natus ;
 Esse tibi veras credis amicitias ?
 Sunt veræ : sed quas juvenis, quas pauper habebas :
 Qui novus est, mortem diligit ille tuam.

LVI. De Lupo, ad Urbicam.

MORTATUR fieri quod te Lopus, Urbice, patrem :
 Ne credas. nihil est, quod minus ille velit.
 Ars est captandi, quod nolis, velle videri :
 Ne facias optat, quod rogat ut facias.
 Dicat prægnantem tua se Cosconia tantum :
 Pallidior fiet jam pariente Lopus.
 At tu consilio videaris ut usus amici ;
 Sic morere, ut factum te putet esse patrem.

LVII. In Chæremonem.

Quod nimirum laudas, Chæremon Stoïce, mortem,
 Vis animum mirer suspiciāmque tuum.
 Hanc tibi virtutem fractâ facit urceus ansâ,
 Et tristis nullo qui tepet igne focus.
 Et teges & cimex, & nudi sponda grabati,
 Et brevis atque eadem nocte diéque toga.

 Et stipulâ, & nigro pane carere potes !
 Leuconicis agedum tumeat tibi culcita lanis :
 Constringatque tuos purpura pexa toros :

Ep. XLV.

CHILDLESS, and rich; and born in Charles's reign,
Can you expect that cordial friends remain?
If such; they are, whom young and poor you found:
The new will love you only under ground.

Ep. LVI.

NED prays, that heaven may you with issue bless:
Believe him not: nothing he wishes less.
To wish what he dislikes is fawning art:
And when he speaks, his tongue belies his heart.
Let but your lady feel a breeding throe,
Ned will look pale, as he were breeding too.
Yet with a friend's desire so far comply;
That he may think you did not childless die.

Ep. LVII.

WHEN you too stoically scorn the grave,
You want me to admire a soul so brave.
A broken pot this virtue doth inspire:
A dismal chimney ever void of fire:
A lousy rug; a bed of blankets bare:
And but one jacket for all seasons wear.
Oh! the great man! that can a mat resign:
A hard brown crust; and dregs of acid wine.
In downy ease let me suppose you laid,
With crimson damask curtains round your bed;

Dormiat & tecum, qui, cùm modò Cœcuba miscet,
 Convivas rofeo torserat ore, paer;
 O quām tu cupies ter vivere Nestoris annos,
 Et nūhil ex ullâ perdere luce voles!
 Rebus in angustijs facile est contemnere vitam;
 Fortiter ille facit, qui miser esse potest.

LX. De Charino.

 Nec cùm lavatur. causa quæ sit, queritis?

 Et fraudator es, & negotiator:
 Et fellator es, & lanista. miror
 Quare non habeas, Vacerra, nummos.

LXVIII. In Maronem.

 Si non es stultus, scis, Maro, quid cupiam.

LXIX. Ad Matbonem.

 Which would not lose one moment from the whole.

 To bear afflictions is true fortitude.

Ep. LX.

Six rings on every finger Vainlove keeps :
 In them he goes to stool ; in them he sleeps.
 If you are curious, and the cause would trace :
 It is because he did not hire the case.

Ep. LXVII.

You an informer are ; and a back-biter :
 A common sharper ; and a hackney writer :
 A whore-master ; and master of defence ;
 Jack of all trades ; strange ! that you want the pence !

Ep. LXVIII.

You nothing give me now ; when you expire,
 You promise all.—You know what I desire.

Ep. LXIX.

An ensign's post you ask ; and that's denied :
 Ask for a colonel's ; 'twill hurt your pride.

LXXVII. Ad Pætum.

SOLVERE, Pæte, decem tibi me seftertia cogis :

Ep. LXXVII.

TEN pounds, I owe, you call for in a peat;
 Because Tom broke two hundred in your debt.
 Hard ! I should bear the faults of other men,
 You, who could lose two hundred; pray lose ten.

Ep. LXXX.

FROM Kew to town four hours I spent: you rail,
 As if I travell'd slower than a snail.
 The road was good: not I, but you, to blame;
 Who sent your equipage, in which I came.

LXXXIII.

AT Bristol, Tom from the mayor's feast was led:
 And home return'd was going up to bed:
 From the stair-head he like Elpenor fell:
 And, like Elpenor, almost drop'd to hell.
 My sober friend ! reflect upon this matter!
 How safe are you, who drink but Bristol water!

Ep. LXXXIV.

GRATIS your house old batchelors frequent:
 Yet none can let a house at higher rent...

Ep. LXXXV.

YOU, who wish not to die before your hour,
 Trust not your face to barber Scrapeill's power.

Alba minùs fævis lacerantur brachia cultris,
 Cùm furit ad Phrygios enthea turba modes,
 Mitior implicitas Alcon fecat enterocelas,
 Frañáque fabrili dedolat ossa manu.

Tondeat hic ioo pes Cynicos, & Stoica menta,
 Colláque pulvereâ nudet equina jubâ.

Hic miserum Scythicâ sub rupe Promethea radat :
 Carnificem nudo pectori pascat avem.

Ad matrem fugiet Pentheus, ad Mænadas Orpheus :
 Antiochi tantùm barbara tela sonent.

Hæc quæcumque meo numerâlti stigmata mento,
 In vetuli pictâ qualia fronte sedent.

Non iracundis fecit gravis unguibus uxor :
 Antiochi ferrum est, & scelerata manus.

Unus de cunctis animalibus hircus habet cor ;
 Barbatus vivit, ne ferat Antiochum.

XCIII. In Zoï'um.

MENTITUR, qui te vitiosum, Zoile, dixit.

Non vitiosus homo es, Zoile, sed vitium.

XCIV. De Theodoro.

PIEROS vatis Theodori flamma Penates
 Abstulit. hoc Musis, hoc tibi, Phœbe, placet ?
 O scelus, ô magnum facinus, criménque deorum,
 Non arsit pariter quòd domus, & dominus.

CVIII. Ad

A soldier's skin is left severely rent,
 Who runs the gauntlet through his regiment.
 Hawkins by far cuts easier for the stone ;
 And any surgeon sets a broken bone.
 A barber, fit for beggars in a lamp ;
 To dock a horse's tail, or cut his mane.
 A felon martyr'd by such hands as these,
 Would call upon the hangman's hand for ease.
 Debtors for refuge would to bailiffs fly,
 And tars to press-gangs, when his razor's nigh.
 Look on these scars ! how movingly they speak !
 And seem as I were burnt in either cheek !
 Not of an angry wife they records stand ;
 But Scrapeill's razor, and his bungling hand.
 A goat is wifest of the brutish herd ;
 Who, to avoid a Scrapeill, wears his beard.

Ep. XCIII.

He says not right, who says, that you are evil :
 You an ill man ! —— you are a very devil.

Ep. XCIV.

Poor poet Dogrel's house consum'd by fire !
 Is the Muse pleas'd ? or father of the lyre ?
 O cruel Fate ! what injury you do,
 To burn the house ! and not the master too !

Ep. CVIII.

EXPLICITUM nobis usque ad sua cornua librum,

Et quasi perfectum, Septiciane, refers.

Omnia legisti. credo, scio, gaudeo, verum est,

Perlegi libros sic ego quinque tuos.

Shew you've perus'd my work, which you return.

So I have read five volumes writ by you.

 Nec fint faxa licet, fallere plana solent.

Ep. XIV.

DEAR 'squire, take my advice ; your hunter spare :
 Nor with such violence pursue a hare :
 The sportsman often does the prey become ;
 And from his horse receive his final doom :
 No ground is safe : if ditch nor bar remain,
 Nor pit ; your horse may stumble on a plain,
 There are enough, at distance to divert,
 And break their neck, who have not your desert.
 If manly exercise such pleasure yields ;
 Safer and nobler seek in Belgic fields.
 Why ride at all ? and madly Fate defy ?
 Roper at last before the fox did die.

Ep. XVII.

YOUR fever still attends you, though you grieve ;
 Though you complain, will not one moment leave :
 With you it travels in a chariot ; dines
 With you, on truffles, oysters, sweetbreads, chines :
 Drinks hock ; in Burgundy is very nice ;
 Nor will taste claret, till 'tis cool'd in ice ;
 Reclines at ease ; and smells to some perfume ;
 Lodges on down, in a well furnish'd room.
 Think you, a fever, which you treat so well,
 Will with a porter or a cobler dwell ?

WHILE you perhaps now crowd thro' Temple-bar,
Stun'd with the din of rattling coach and car ;
Or towards Paul's are mounting Ludgate-street ;
Or running to the levee of the great ;
Or in your lawyer's gown are driving hard ;
Either through great or little Palace-yard ;
My native Sussex, and her favourite shore,
Of golden harvests proud, and iron ore,
Me, her too long absenting renegade,
Again revives, and hath a farmer made.
Busy but pleas'd, and idly taking plains,
Here Lewes Downs I till, and Ringmer plains ;
Names which to each South Saxon are well known,
Though they found harsh to powder'd beaux in town.
None can enjoy a founder sleep than mine ;
I often do not wake till after nine ;
And midnight hours with interest repay,
For years in town diversions thrown away.
Stranger to finery, myself I dress,
In the first coat from an old broken press.
My fire, as soon as I am up, I see
Bright with the ruins of some neighbouring tree ;
And early by a country cook-wench crown'd
With boiling pots and skillets all around.
Next comes my dairy-maid ; and such a one,
As Pan himself might wish to meet alone.

Ep. XXI.

THAT you were born, and ever since have liv'd
 In Derby Peak, is scarce to be conceiv'd.
 Wit so uncommon, and diverting too,
 Courts might admire, and challenge as their due.
 No Pall-mall lady can with you compare ;
 None, who sees company in Grosvenor-square.
 Nor soon again will shine in tracts unknown,
 One, who would be an ornament to town.
 You for the lost metropolis attone ;
 And London I enjoy in you alone.

Ep. XXII.

YOUR hair and teeth you're not ashame'd to buy.
 What will you do, should you lose t' other eye.

Ep. XXIV.

How pleasant is this one-horse chair !
 In which alone I take the air :

'Tis

Facundi mihi munus Eliam;
 Hic mecum licet, hic, Juvence, quidquid
 In buccam tibi venerit, loqueris.
 Non rector Libyci niger caballi,
 Succinctus neque cursor antecedit.
 Nusquam mulie: mannuli tacebunt.
 O si conscius esset hic Avitus,
 Aurem non ego tertiam timerem.
 Totus quam bene sic dies abiret!

XXV. In Thelefimum.

Cum rogo te numinos finè pignore: non habeo, inquis.
 Idem, si pro me spondet agellus, habes.
 Quod mihi non credis veteri, Thelefine, sodali,
 Credis colliculis, arborib[us]que meis.
 Ecce reum Carus te detulit: adsit agellus.
 Exili comitem queris? agellus eat:

XXVI. In avarum amicum.

SEXAGINTA teras cum limina manè senator,
 Esse tibi videor defidiosus eques:
 Quod non à primâ discurrat luce per urbem,
 Et referat lassus basia mille domum.

Sed

'Tis Pleadwell's present : for my age,
 There is no better equipage.
 Now with thy master, Ball, be free ;
 And say whate'er you please to me.
 No master of the horse have I,
 Or groom or running-footman by.
 And though your curb and harness rattle,
 The devil's in it, if they tattle.
 Would that my honest friend Ned Hearty
 Were here but with us of the party !
 I should not fear, that he would tell :
 We three might pass the day full well.

Ep. XXV.

If I want money ; you have none, you cry :
 But lend it, if my field's security.
 With what you would not trust your ancient friend,
 That to my acres, and my trees you lend.
 Are you indicted for a breach of laws ?
 Go to my field, and let him plead my cause.
 Want you a friend your banishment to ease ?
 Let my field travel with you, if he please.

Ep. XXVI.

When in your borough you yourself bestir,
 I do appear to you an idle cur ;
 That by day-break I run not up and down,
 And kiss each voter's wife throughout the towⁿ.

By

Sed tu purpureis ut des nova nomina fastis,
 Aut Numidum gentes, Cappadocumve petas :
 At mihi, quem cogis medios abrumpere somnos,
 Et matutinum ferre, patique luctum,
 Quid petitur? rupta cum pes vagus exit alutâ,
 Et subitus crassæ decidit imber aquæ :
 Nec venit ablatis clamathis verna lacernis ;
 Accedit gelidam servus ad auriculam,
 Et, rogit ut coenes secum Lætorius, inquit.
 Viginti nummis non ego malo famem ;
 Quod fit coena mihi, tibi fit provincia merces,
 Et faciamus idem, nec mereamur idem.

XXVII. In Seniam.

A latronibus esse te fututam
 Dicis, Senia : sed negant latrones.

XXVIII. In Cinnam.

Poto ego sextantes : tu potas, Cinna, deunces.
 Et quereris, quod non, Cinna, bibamus idem.

XXX. Ad Aprum.

Siccus, sobrius est Aper : quid ad me ?
 Servum sic ego laudo, non amicum.

XXXI. Dt

By this you may gain credit in the nation ;
 Or be made governor of some plantation.
 But as for me, what end can I obtain ?
 Whom you compel to break my rest in vain :
 And early march along a dirty street,
 With scarce a shoe entire upon my feet :
 And if a sudden heavy shower descends,
 Without a boy, who with a cloak attends.
 Your servant whispers to me in this plight,
 ‘ His honour begs you’ll sup with him to-night.
 Had I not rather by myself keep Lent ?
 Let not our pains and pay be different !
 Is it not hard, that this should be the case ?
 I but a supper get, and you a place.

Ep. XXVII.

SHE ravish’d was by highwaymen, she cries :
 Flatly the fact each highwayman denies.

Ep. XXVIII.

I DRINK a pint ; a gallon you : for shame !
 Can you complain, the wine is not the same ?

Ep. XXX.

TOM never drinks : that I should much commend
 In Tom my coachman, but not Tom my friend.

Ep. XXXI.

XXXI. De hortis Marcellae uxoris.

Hoc nemus, hi fontes, haec textilis umbra supini
 Palmitis, hoc rigore ductile flumen aquæ:
 Pratique, nec bifero cessura rosaria Pæsto:
 Quodque viret Jani mense, nec alget elus:
 Quæque natat clausis anguilla domesticâ lymphâ,
 Quæque gerit similes candida tarris aves:
 Munera sunt dominæ post septima lustra reverso;
 Has Marcella domos, parvâque regna dedit.
 Si mihi Nauficaë patrios concederet hortos,
 Alcinoo possem dicere, malo meos.

XXXIV. Ad Julium Martialem.

TRIGINTA mihi, quatuorque messes
 Tecum, si memini, fuere, Juli:
 Quarum dulcia mixta sunt amaris:
 Sed jucunda tamen fuere plura.
 Et si calculus omnis huc, & illuc
 Diversus bicolórque digeratur:
 Vincet candida turba nigriorem.
 Si vitare velis acerba quædam,
 Et tristes animi cavere morsus,
 Nulli te facias nimis sodalem.
 Gaudebis minùs, & minùs dolebis.

XXXV. Ad Callistratum.

TAMQUAM simpliciter mecum, Callistrate, vivas:
 Dicere præcium te mihi sœpe soles.

Ep. XXXI.

This grove ; these fountains ; tomile Linden's shade ;
 Refreshing streams, by ductile waters made ;
 These flowering meadows, still like Eden gay ;
 These pot-herbs green, that dare the coldest day ;
 This eel, which swims familiar to the sight ;
 This towering dove-house, cover'd with its flight ;
 I to my wife, after long absence, owe :
 'Tis she this house, this kingdom, did bestow :
 Could I with the first fair have paradise,
 Blest as I am, the boon I would despise.

Ep. XXXIV.

We two, in fair and in foul weather,
 Thirty-four years have pass'd together :
 Nor sweet nor sour our cup did want ;
 The sweet hath been predominant :
 And bring life's chequer'd board to light,
 Fewer the spots of black than white.
 Would you shun many things to curse,
 And guard against the mind's remorse,
 With none too intimately live ;
 Less you'll rejoice, and less will grieve.

Ep. XXXV.

FREE from reserve you would to me appear ;
 And tell me, you are pos'd, to seem sincere..

Non es tam simplex, quam vis, Callistrate, credi :
Nam quisquis narrat talia, plura tacet.

XXXVI. In Labullum.

LIBRAS quatuor, aut duas amico,
Algentemque togam, brevemque lenanam,
Interdum aureolos manu crepanteis,
Possint ducere qui duas calendas,
Quod nemo, nisi tu, Labulle, donas;
Non es, crede mihi, bonus. quid ergo ?
Ut verum loquar, optimus malorum.
Pisones, Senecasque, Memmiosque,
Et Crispos mihi redde, sed priores :
Fies protinus ultimus bonorum.
Vis cursu, pedibusque gloriari ?
Tigrim vince, levemque Passerinum.
Nulla est gloria praeterire ascellos.

XL. In Pontilianum,

MENTIRIS? credo: recitas mala carmina? laudo:
Cantas? canto: bibis, Pontiliane? bibo.
Pedis? dissimulo: gemma vis ludere? vincor.
Res una est sine me, quam facis, & taceo.
Nil tamen omnino praestas mihi. mortuus, inquis,
Accipiam bene te. nil volo: sed morere.

XLV. Ad

But with a friend this is not dealing well ;
 For he must more conceal, who this could tell.

Ep. XXXVI.

THOUGH you bestow upon a man of worth,
 A jacket, Joseph, dinner, or so forth ;
 A piece or two in hand, which soon must fail,
 And save but two months longer from a jail ;
 And though scarce one besides yourself does thus ;
 Believe me, Sir, you are not generous.
 What am I then ? say you. Why truly, I Sir
 Think you at best a better sort of miser.
 Recall to mind the Pisos, Senecas ;
 (Bounty, which is not now, but such as was)
 Compar'd with them, how much are you surpass'd !
 Of all the generous men you are the last.
 If for Newmarket plate you would contend ;
 'Tis strength, 'tis swiftness, that must recommend.
 The glory is, from the best horse to gain ;
 Not to o'ertake an ass upon the plain.

Ep. XL.

I PRAISE your dogrel verse : believe your lye :
 You sing, I sing : you drink, and so do I.
 You fart, I strive : we play, you win the game :
 One thing, you do without me, I don't name.
 And yet you nothing give me : when you die,
 You promise much :—but one more wish have I.

XLV. Ad Phœbum.

HODINA tibi pelle contegenti
 Nudæ tempora verticemque calvæ ;
 Festivè tibi, Phœbe, dixit ille,
 Qui dixit caput esse calceatum.

XLVI. Ad Clasicum.

VENDUNT carmina Gallus, & Lupercus.
 Sanos Clasice, nunc nega poëtas.

XLVIII. In lautum invitatorem.

BOLLETOS & aprum si tanquam vilia ponis,
 Et non esse putas hæc mea vox : volo.
 Si fortunatum fieri me credis, & hæres
 Vis scribi, propter quinque Lucrina : vale.
 Lauta tamen cœna est : fateor, lautissima : sed crass
 Nil erit, imò hodie ; protinus imò nihil ;
 Quod sciat infelix damnatae spongia virgæ,
 Vel quicumque canis, junctaque testa viæ :
 Mullorum, leporumque, & suminis exitus hic est ;
 Sulphureusque color, carnificesque pedes.
 Non Albana mihi sit comissatio tanti ;
 Nec Capitoline, pontificumque dapes.
 Imputet ipse Deus neclar mihi, fiet acetum,
 Et Vaticani perfida vappa cadi.
 Convivas alios cœnarum quære magister,
 Quos capiant mensæ regna superba tuæ :
 Me meus ad subitas invitet amicus ofellas:
 Haec mihi, quam possum reddere, cœna placet,

Ep. XLV.

WHEN to secure your bald pate from the weather,
 You lately wore a cap of black neats leather;
 He was a very wag, who to you faid,
 ‘ Why do you wear your slippers on your head ?’

Ep. XLVI.

WHEN Scribler makes us for his verse subscribe ;
 All are not mad of the poetic tribe.

Ep. XLVIII.

As common fare, when sausages and chine
 You place before me ; I with pleasure dine.
 But if you think to please me ; or conceive
 By soups to be my heir ; I take my leave.
 Your dinner’s nice ; extremely nice, I own ;
 Yet it is nought the moment it is down.
 Perchance, it to a dirty mop may fall,
 A hungry dog, closestool, or urinal.
 In what ends mullet, hare, and season’d meat ?
 In ashy countenance, and gouty feet.
 Dear at that rate the most delicious cheer :
 A coronation feast by much too dear !
 Think you, when you your Burgundy do pour,
 You honour me ? the thought will turn it sour.
 Proud entertainer, seek another guest
 To praise the regal splendour of your feast.
 Me let a friend to a chance scrap receive :
 I like a dinner, such as I can give.

XLIX. Ad Linum pædagogum.

CRINITÆ Linæ pædagoge turbæ,
Rerum quem dominum vocat suarum,
Et credit cui Postumilla dives
Gemmas, aurea, vina, concubinos :
Sic te, perpetuâ fide probatum,
Nulli non tua præferat patrona :
Succurras misero, precor, furori,
Et serves aliquando negligenter
Illos, qui malè cor meum perurunt :
Quos & noctibus & diebus opto
In nostro cupidus finu videre :
Formosos, niveos, pares, gemellos ;
Grandes, non pueros, sed uniones.

L. In habentem amænas ædes.

DA PHNONAS, platanonas & aërias cyparissos,
Et non unius balnea solus habes ;
Et tibi centenis stat porticus alta columnis,
Calcatúsque tuo sub pede lucet onyx ;
Pulvereúmque fugax hippodromon ungula plaudit,
Et pereuntis aquæ fluctus ubique sonat.
Atria longa patent : sed nec coenantibus usquam,
Nec somno locus est. quām bene non habitat !

LI. De Fabullo.

TAM sæpe nostrum decipi Fabullinum
Miraris, Aule? semper bonus homo tiro est.

Ep. XLIX.

Thou master of Tête de Mouton,
 Thou Calverly of high renown,
 To whom my lady Wealthy sent,
 Her girl with every ornament.
 Long be you famous for your care ;
 And mothers you to all prefer.
 Pity on me, some pity, have,
 To a strong passion quite a slave.
 Nor guard so close what I admire,
 And what hath set my heart on fire :
 Which night and day I long to hold ;
 And eager on my breast infold :
 Bright, sparkling, lively, lovely, fair.
 —I speak of miss's solitaire.

Ep. L.

None equal you in trees for ever green :
 Your bath's the most majestic can be seen :
 Your colonnade is lofty, spacious, fine :
 And underfoot your marble pavements shine :
 Round your wide park the fleeting couser bounds :
 Many cascades salute us with their sounds :
 Apartments grand : no place to eat or sleep !
 What a most noble house you do not keep !

Ep. LI.

WONDER you, Meanwell is so often bit ?
 An honest man's a child in worldly wit.

LVII. Ad Sparsum.

Cur s̄epe siccī parva rura Nomenti,
 Larēmque villæ sordidum petam, quæris?
 Nec cogitandi, Sparse, nec quiescendi
 In urbe locus est pauperi. negant vitam
 Ludimagistri manè, nocte pistores,
 Ærariorū marculi die toto.
 Hinc ociosus sordidam quatit mensam
 Neronianā nummularius massā:
 Illinc paludis malleator Hispanæ
 Tritum nitenti fuste verberat saxum.
 Nec turba cessat entheata Bellonæ,
 Nec fasciato naufragus loquax truncō,
 A matre doctus nec rogare Judæus,
 Nec sulfuratæ lippus insitor mercis.
 Numerare pigri damañā qui potest somni,
 Dicet, quot æra verberent manus urbis,
 Cūm secta Colcho luna vapulat rhombo.
 Tu, Sparse, nescis ista, nec potes scire,
 Petilianis delicatus in regnis,
 Cui plana summos despicit domus montes,
 Et rus in urbe est, vinitórque Romanus.
 Nec in Falerno colle major autumnus,
 Intráque limen clausus effedo cursus,
 Et in profundo somnus, & quies nullis
 Offensa linguis; nec dies, nisi admissus.
 Nos transeuntis risus excitat turbæ,
 Et ad cubile est Roma: tædio fessis
 Dormire quoties libuit, imus ad villam.

Ep. LVII.

WHY to a homely cottage I retire,
On a dry spot, not far from Harrow spire ?
Because a man, so poor as I, may creep
Round town ; nor find a hole to think or sleep.
Is it to live ? to lodge as in a mill :
Disturb'd each morn by chimney-sweepers shrill :
With pewterers' hammers tinkling in ones ears :
With alley jobbers crying bulls and bears.
Here Irish bog-trotters, now pavitors grown,
Ram with loud hems and thumps the shining stoney :
There soldiers marching to their duty come,
With trumpets sounding ; and with beat of drum.
Dun'd by a sailor with a wooden leg ;
Or little Palatine brought up to beg.
Stun'd by a train of ragged dirty wretches,
Hawking a Grubstreet paper, or card matches.
The ways to lose one's sleep whoever tells,
Might count the changes on St. Martin's bells.
But you, my lord, know none of all this ill,
Whose palace looks o'er Constitution Hill.
Your ruris in urbe delicately yields
A prospect fair o'er Chelsea's twice-mow'd fields.
Within your gate a yard to turn a coach :
Your chamber safe from noise and day's approach.
No passing mob with idle jokes to noise it ;
Nor lodging-room with London for its closet.
Fatigued with all this hubbub, far we fly it,
To pass in country cot the night in quiet.

LX. Ad suum natalem.

MARTIS alumne dies, roseam quo lampada primūm,
 Magnaque fiderei vidimus ora dei :
 Si te rure coli, viridēsque pigebit ad aras,
 Qui fueras Latiā cultus in urbe mihi :
 Da veniam, servire meis quòd nolo calendis,
 Et quâ sum genitus, vivere luce volo.
 Natali pallere suo, ne calda Sabello
 Defit, & ut liquidum potet Alauda merum,
 Turbida sollicito transmittere Cæcuba facco ;
 Atque inter mensas ire, redire suas ;
 Excipere hos, illos, & totâ surgere cœnâ
 Marmora calcantem frigidiora gelu :
 Quæ ratio est, hæc spcnte tuâ perferre, patique,
 Quæ, te si jubeat rex dominâsve, neges ?

LXI. De Ligurrâ.

VERSUS, & breve vividūmque carmen
 In te ne faciam times, Ligurra ;
 Et dignus cupis hōc metu videri :
 Sed frustra metuis, cupisque frustra.
 In tauros Libyci fremunt leones ;
 Non sunt papilionibus molesti.
 Quæras, censeo, si legi laboras,
 Nigri fornícis ebrium poëtam ;
 Qui carbone rudi, putrique cretâ
 Scribit carmina, quæ legunt cacantes.

Ep. LX.

HAIL Taffi's day ! on which my race begun ;
On which I first beheld the glorious sun.
That day I now in rural ease will spend ;
In banquet whilom pass'd with many a friend.
No longer slave to forms, I will contrive,
Upon that day, which gave me life, to live.
Is it to keep the day ? in pain to sup,
About Sir Harry's hock, and Ned's spice-cup.
Anxious the punch well zested be, and bright :
The tables, dishes, company placed right.
Rising each moment during the whole feast ;
And catching cold to compliment each guest.
Were this commanded, we should not comply :
Why therefore chuse such formal slavery ?

Ep. LXI.

You dread my verse, and sting of wit,
Which put you in a shaking fit :
Would seem of rank to entertain
Such fears : your fears and hopes are vain.
'Tis at the bull that lions fly,
While rats run unregarded by.
Find other poets, if you long
To be the burden of a song :
Some drunken bard from Grubstreet hole,
Who, with a piece of chalk or coal,
May draw a line or two of satire,
Which we may read in easing nature.

Your

Frons hæc stigmate non meo notanda est.

LXIII. Ad Cordubam.

UNCTO Corduba lætior Venafro,
 Hisstrâ nec minùs absolute testâ,
 Albi quæ superas oves Galeſi,
 Nullo murice, nec crux mendax,
 Sed tinctis gregibus colore vivo :
 Dic vestro, rogo, sit pudor poëtæ,
 Ne gratis recitet meos libellos :
 Ferrem, si faceret bonus poëta,
 Cui possem dare mutuos honores :
 Corrumptit sinè talione cœlebs.
 Cæcus perdere non potest, quod ausert.
 Nil est deterius latrone nudo :
 Nil securius est male poëtâ.

LXVIII. Ad clientes.

MATUTINE cliens, urbis mihi causa relictæ,
 Atria, si sapias, ambitiosa colas.
 Non sum ego causidicus, nec amaris litibus aptus :
 Sed piger, & senior, Pieridumque comes.
 Ocia me, somnusque juvant, quæ magna negavit
 Roma mihi : pedeo, si vigilatur & hic.

LXX. De

Your coxcomb may deserve the burden,
Not of my verse, but of my jordan.

Ep. LXIII.

O GRUBSTREET ! fam'd for cying speech,
And many a scrap to wipe the breech :
With pamphlet and with journal vying
In downright, true blue, native lying :
Pray tell your shameless bard, who gratis
Repeats my works ; that 'tis plus satis.
From a good poet such behaviour
I'd bear, and might return the favour.
When batchelors supply your place,
There's no retaliating the case.
If a blind man beats out your eye,
You can't return the injury.
As beggars are from suits infer'd ;
So a bad poet is secur'd.

Ep. LXVIII.

THOU morning client, this is my retreat :
Go to the town and palace of the great.
No lawyer I, nor can your cause defend ;
But old, and idle, and the muse's friend.
Ease and repose I love ; but if in vain
I seek them here ; why not to town again ?

Ep. LXX

LXX. De Apro.

LINTEA ferret Apro vacuus cùm vernula nuper,
 Et supra togulam lusca federet anus ;
 Atque olei stillam daret enterocelicus unctor :
 Udomum tetricus censor & asper erat :
 Frangendos calices, effundendumque Falernum
 Clamabat, biberet qui modò lotus eques.
 A fene sed postquam patruo venere trecenta ;
 Sobrius à thermis nescit abire domum.
 O quantum diatreta valent, & quinque comati !
 Tunc, cùm pauper erat, non sitiebat Aper.

LXXII. Ad Pannicum.

JUGERA mercatus prope busta latentis agelli,
 Et malè compactæ culmina fulta casæ,
 Deseris urbanas, tua prædia, Pannice, lites,
 Parvaque sed tritæ præmia certa togæ.
 Frumentum, milium, ptisanamque, fabamque solebas
 Vendere pragmaticus : nunc emis agricola.

LXXIV. Ad Flaccum.

Cum tibi Niliacus portet crystalla cataplus,
 Accipe de circo pocula Flaminio.
 Hi magis audaces, an sunt, qui talia mittunt
 Munera ? sed geminus vilibus usus ineft.
 Nullum sollicitant hæc, Flacce, toremata furem,
 Et nimium calidisnon vitiantur aquis.
 Quid, quod securo potat conviva ministro,
 Et casum tremulæ non timuere manus ?

Ep. LXX.

Tom had a lad lame with a broken thigh ;
And an old housekeeper with but one eye :
On greasy steake from chop-house did regale :
And against drunkards most devoutly rail.
Did you for bottles after dinner call ;
He damn'd the bottles, glasses, wine, and all.
Now an estate is from an uncle come ;
He from the tavern ne'er goes sober home ;
Such the effect of plate and lacqueys five !
When poor, Tom was the soberest man alive.

Ep. LXXII.

A LITTLE farm you purchase near the town,
With a poor timber house, just dropping down.
And business quit, a better farm by far ;
I mean the certain profits of the bar.
Of wheat, oats, beans, and barley, large supplies
The lawyer got ; which now the farmer buys.

Ep. LXXIV.

THOUGH ships from China bring you cup and jar ;
Accept this mug of homely Lambeth ware.
Bold is the man, who such a present sends ;
Though a cheap pot many answer several ends.
A thief for this will hardly risk his neck ;
Nor easily will scalding water break.
The servant brings it in no pain at all,
Nor have you any, left you let it fall.

Yea

Hoc quoque non nihil est, quod prepinabis in istis,
Frangendus fuerit si tibi, Flacce, calix.

LXXVII. De Æthonete.

MULTIS dum precibus Jovem salutat,
Stans summos resupinus usque in unguem;
Æthon in Capitolio pepedit;
Riserunt comites: sed ipse divum
Offensus genitor, trinoctiali
Affecit domicenio clientem.
Post hoc flagitium misellus Æthon,
Cùm vult in Capitolium venire,
Sellas antè petit Patroclianas,
Et pedit deciesque, viciésque:
Sed quamvis sibi caverit crepando,
Compressis natibus Jovem salutat.

LXXXIII. De Menogene.

EFFUGERE in thermis, & circa balnea non est.
Menogenen, omni tu licet arte velis.
Captabit tepidum dextram, levaque trigonem,
Imputet exceptas ut tibi saepe pilas.
Colliget, & referet lapsum de pulvere follem.
Et si jam latet, jam soleatus erit.
Lintea si sumes, nive candidiora loquetur,
Sint licet infantis sordidiora finu.
Exiguos sesto.comentem dente capilles,
Dicet Achilleas dispositissime comas.

Fumofæ

You pledge not him, you think has a disease ;
But drop the cup, and break it, if you please.

Ep. LXXVII.

WHILE Spintext, in his sermon long and loud,
On tip-toe catechis'd the listening creud ;
He from the pulpit did a fart let fly.
The congregation lost their gravity.
Th' offended bishop did the thing resent :
A cruel penance Spintext underwent :
Doom'd to his lordship's board no more to come ;
But on light diet live three moonths at home.
And 'tis with Spintext now a constant rule,
Before he mounts the desk, to go to stool.
And after all that caution, less does mind
His prayers at church, than to hold fast behind.

Ep. LXXXIII.

To breakfast if to Ranelagh you stray,
And Supple meet ; he's not shuck off that day.
The boiling kettle with both hands he'll seise ;
And hand the cakes ; that you may fit at ease.
In the canal the wind your beaver blows ;
To take it out, he ventures over shoes.
If you take snuff ; your box he magnifies,
Although of iron, and the lowest price.
Then with his comb will fet young master's hair :
And swear, no wig can with those locks compare.

Attend.

Fumosæ feret ille tropin de fæce lagenæ,
 Frontis & humorem colliget usque tuæ.
 Omnia laudabit, mirabitur omnia, donec
 Percessus dicas tædia mille, veni.

XCI. De Marone.

Pro sene, sed caro, votum Maro fecit amico,
 Cui gravis, & fervens hemitritæus erat :
 Si Stygias æger non iret missus ad undas,
 Ut caderet magno viætima grata Jovi.
 Cœperunt certam medici spondere salutem.
 Ne votum solvat, nunc Maro vota facit.

XCIII. Ad Priscum.

Sæpe rogare soles, qualis sim, Prisce, futurus,
 Si siam locuples, simque repente potens.
 Quemquam posse putas mores narrare futuros ?
 Dic mihi, si fias tu leo, qualis eris ?

XCIV. De Fabullâ.

Quia mœchum ratione basiaret
 Coram conjugi, reperit Fabulla.
 Parvum basiat usque morionem :
 Hunc multis rapit osculis madentem
 Mœchus protinus, & suis repletum
 Ridenti dominæ statim remittit.
 Quanto morio major est maritus ?

Attends him to the necessary place :
 And wipes a drop of sweat from off his face.
 All he admires and praises ; till in fine
 Fatigued you cry, ‘ To-day, pray, with us dine.

Ep. XCII.

WEALTHY was of a fever like to die ;
 When a most solemn vow was made by Sly :
 If his friend Wealthy gave not up the ghost,
 A church he'd build at his own proper cost.
 Wealthy gets well : thinks Sly, left in the lurch,
 Since private prayer prevail'd, there needs no church.

Ep. XCIII.

WHAT would I do, the question you repeat,
 If on a sudden I were rich and great ?
 Who can himself with future conduct charge ?
 What would you do, a lion, and at large ?

Ep. XCIV.

My lady Modish doth this way devise,
 To kiss her spark before her husband's eyes.
 She slavers o'er her little boy with kisses,
 And the gallant receives the reaking blisses :
 Then to the little Cupid gives a smack ;
 And to his laughing mother sends him back.
 But if the husband is this way beguil'd ;
 The husband is by much the greater child.

Ep. C.

C. In frontem.

Os atavi, patris nafum, duo lumina patris,
 Et matris gestus dicis habere tuae.
 Cùm referas priscos, nullamque in corpore partem
 Mentiris; frontem, dic mihi, cujus habes?

CII. Ad Milonem.

Thura, piper, vestes, argentum, pallia, gemmas,
 Vendere, Milo, soles, cum quibus emptor abit.
 Conjugis utilior merx est: qua vendita sæpe
 Vendentem numquam deserit, aut miserit.

APPEND.

Ep. C.

You say, your nose and eyes your father's are :
Your mouth your grandf're's : with your mother's air.
Since every part hath got some stamp upon't ;
Pray, tell us, if you can, whose is your front.

Ep. CII.

The spice, cloaths, plate, and jewels, which each day
By you are sold, the buyer bears away.
But your wife's merchandise yields greater gain,
Which you so often sell, yet still retain.

BOOK THE FIRST.

EPICRAM I. SPECTATOR, N^o 446.

WH Y dost thou come, great censor of the age,
To see the loose diversions of the stage ?
With awful countenance; and brow severe,
What in the name of goodness dost thou here ?
See the mixt croud ! how giddy, lewd, and vain !
Didst thou come in but to go out again ?

Ep. LVI. COWLEY.

WELL then, Sir, you shall know how far extend
The prayers and hopes of your poetic friend :
He does not palaces normannors crave,
Would be no lord, but les a lord would have :
The ground he holds, if he his own can call ;
He quarrels not with heaven because 'tis small :
Let gay and toilsome greatness others please,
He loves of homely littleness the ease.
Can any man in gilded rooms attend,
And his dear hours in humble visits spend ?

LXIX. De Rufo.

QUIDQUID agit Rufus, nihil est nisi Nævia Rufo.
 Si gaudet, si flet, si tacet, hanc loquitur.
 Cœnat, propinat, poscit, negat, innuit ; una est
 Nævia ; si non sit Nævia, mutus erit.
 Scriberet hesternâ patri cùm luce salutem ;
 Nævia lux, inquit, Nævia lumen ave.
 Hæc legit, & ridet demissò Nævia vultu.
 Nævia non una est : quid, vir inepte, furis ?

 Cui tradas epigrammaton libellum,
 Leclum quem tibi protinus remittam.

When in the fresh and beauteous fields he may
 With various healthful pleasures fill the day ?
 If there be man (ye gods) I ought to hate,
 Dependance and attendance be his fate.
 Still let him busy be, and in a croud,
 And very much a slave, and very proud :
 Thus he perhaps powerful and rich may grow ;
 No matter, O ye gods ! that I'll allow ;
 But let him peace and freedom never see ;
 Let him not love this life, who loves not me.

Ep. LXIX. SPECTATOR, N° 113.

LET Rufus weep, rejoice, stand, sit, or walk,
 Still he can nothing but of Nævia talk :
 Let him eat, drink, ask questions, or dispute,
 Still he must speak of Nævia, or be mute.
 He writ to his father, ending with this line,
 I am, my lovely Nævia, ever thine.

Ep. CXVIII. OLDHAM.

As oft, Sir Tradewell, as we meet,
 You're sure to ask me in the street,
 When you shall send your boy to me,
 To fetch my book of poetry,
 And promise you'll but read it o'er,
 And faithfully the loan restore :

Non est, quòd puerum, Luperce, vexes.
Longum est, si velit ad Pyrum venire,
Et scalis habitu tribus, sed altis.
Quod quæris, propriùs petas licebit :

Scriptis postibus hinc & indè totis,
Omnes ut citò perlegas Poëtas.

De primo dabit, alteróve nido
Rasum pumice, purpurâque cultum
Denariis tibi quinque Martialem.
Tanti noa es, ais. sapis, Luperce.

But let me tell you as a friend,
 You need not take the pains to send :
 'Tis a long way to where I dwell,
 At farther end of Clerkenwell :
 There in a garret near the sky,
 Above five pair of stairs I lie.
 But if you'd have what you pretend,
 You may procure it nearer hand :
 In Cornhill, where you often go,
 Hard by th' Exchange, there is, you know,
 A shop of rhyme, where you may see
 The poets all clad in poetry :
 There H—— lives of high renown,
 The noted'st Tory in the town :
 Where, if you please, enquire for me,
 And he, or's prentice, presently
 From the next shelf will reach you down
 The piece well bound for half a crown :
 The price is much too dear, you cry, •
 To give for both the book and me :
 Yes doubtless for such vanities ;
 We know, Sir, you are too too wise.

Ep. LIII. COWLEY.

WOULD you be free? 'tis your chief wish, you say;
Come on; I'll shew thee, friend, the certain way:
If to no feasts abroad thou lov'st to go,
Whilst bounteous God does bread at home bestow;
If thou the goodness of thy cloaths do'st prize
By thine own use, and not by others' eyes;
If (only safe from weathers) thou canst dwell
In a small house, but a convenient shell;
If thou without a figh, or golden wish,
Canst look upon thy beechen bowl and dish;
If in thy mind such power and greatness be;
The Persian king's a slave compar'd with thee.

Ep. LXVIII. COWLEY.

THAT I do you with humble bowes no more,
And danger of my naked head adore;
That I, who lord and master cry'd ere while,
Salute you in a new and different style,
By your own name, a scandal to you now,
Think not that I forget myself and you:
By loss of all things by all others sought,
This freedom, and the freeman's hat, is bought.

XC. Ad Quintilianum.

QUINTILIANE, vagæ moderator summe juventæ,
Gloria Romanæ, Quintiliane, togæ ;
Vivere quòd propero pauper, nec inutilis annis ;
Da veniam : properat vivere nemo satís.

A lord and master no man wants, but he,
 Who o'er himself has no authority.
 Who does for honours and for riches strive,
 And follies, without which lords cannot live.
 If thou from fortune do'st no servant crave,
 Believe it, thou no master need'st to have.

Ep. XC. COWLEY.

WONDER not, Sir, (you who instruct the town
 In the true wisdom of the sacred gown)

That I make haste to live, and cannot hold
 Patiently out, till I grow rich and old.
 Life for delays, and doubts no time does give ;
 None ever yet made haste enough to live.
 Let him defer it, whose preposterous care
 Omits himself, and reaches to his heir.
 Who does his father's bounded stores despise,
 And whom his own too never can suffice.
 My humble thoughts no glittering roofs require,
 Or rooms that shine with ought but constant fire.
 I will content the avarice of my sight
 With the fair gildings of reflected light :
 Pleasures abroad, the sport of nature yields
 Her liying fountains, and her smiling fields.
 And then at home, what pleasure is't to see
 A little clearly chearful family !
 Which if a chaste wife crown, no less in her
 Than fortune, I the golden mean prefer.

Sit mihi verna sator : sit non doctissima conjux :

Sit nox cum somno : sit finē lite dies.

Nec pavidos tristi voce citare reos :

Nec potes uxorem cari corrumpere amici :

Nec potes algentes arrigere ad vetulas :

BOOK the FOURTH.

Ep. V. COWLEY.

HONEST and poor, faithful in word and thought,
What hath thee, Fabian, to the city brought?
Thou neither the buffoon nor bawd can't play ;
Nor with false whispers th' innocent betray :
Nor corrupt wives ; nor from rich beldams get
A living by thy industry and sweat :
Nor with vain promises and projects cheat ;
Nor bribe nor flatter any of the great.
But you're a man of learning, prudent, just ;
A man of courage, firm, and fit for trust.
Why, you may stay, and live unenvied here ;
But (faith) go back, and keep you where you were.

Ep. XXI. COWLEY.

If, dearest friend, it my good fate might be
To enjoy at once a quiet life and thee ;
If we for happiness could leisure find,
And wand'ring time into a method bind ;
We should not sure the great men's favour need,
Nor on long hopes, the court's thin diet, feed.
We should not patience find to daily hear
The calumnies, and flatteries spoken there.
We should not the lords tables humbly use,
Or talk in ladies chambers love and news ;
But books, and wise discourse, gardens and fields,
And all the joys that unmixt nature yields.
Thick summer shades, where winter still does lye,
Bright winter fires that summer's part supply.
Sleep not controll'd by cares confin'd to night,
Or bound in any rule but appetite.
Free, but not savage or ungracious mirth,
Rich wines to give it free and easy birth.
A few companions, which ourselves should chuse,
A gentle mistress, and a genler muse.

 Our place, our business, and our company.
 Now to himself, alas, does neither live,
 But see good funs, of which we are to give
 A strict account, set and march thick away ;
 Knows a man how to live, and does he stay ?

Ep. LIX. COWLEY.

To-morrow you will live, you always cry ;
 In what fair country does this morrow lye,
 That 'tis so mighty long ere it arrive ?
 Beyond the Indies does this morrow live ?
 'Tis so far fetch'd, this morrow, that I fear
 'Twill be both very old and very dear.
 To-morrow I will live, the fool does say ;
 To-day itself's too late, the wise lived yesterday.

BOOK THE TENTH.

Ep. XLVII. COWLEY.

SINCE, dearest friend, 'tis your desire to see
 A true receipt of happiness from me ;
 These are the chief ingredients, if not all,
 Take an estate neither too great nor small,
 Which quantum sufficit the doctors call.
 Let this estate from parents' care descend ;
 The getting it too much of life does spend.
 Take such a ground, whose gratitude may be
 A fair encouragement for industry.
 Let constant fires the winter's fury tame,
 And let thy kitchen's be a vestal flame.
 Thee to the town let never suit at law,
 And rarely, very rarely, busines draw.
 Thy active mind in equal temper keep,
 In undisturbed peace, yet not in sleep.
 Let exercise a vigorous health maintain,
 Without which all the composition's vain.
 In the same weight prudence and innocence take,
 And of each does the just mixture make.

}

But

Convictus facilis ; finè arte mensa ;
 Nox non ebria, sed soluta curis ;
 Non tristis torus, & tamen pudicus ;
 Somnus, qui faciat breves tenebras ;
 Quod sis, esse velis, nihilque malis :
 Summum nec metuas diem, nec optes.

XCVI. Ad Avitam,

SÆPE loquar nimirum gentes quèd, Avite, remotas,
 Miraris, Latiam factus in urbe senex ;
 Auriferumque Tagum sitiam, patriamque Salonen,
 Et repetam saturæ sordida rura case.
 Illa placet tellus, in quâ res parva beatum
 ; Me facit, & tenues luxuriantur opes.
 Pascitur hic : ibi pascit ager : tepet igne malignæ
 Hic focus, ingenti lumine lacet ibi.
 Hic pretiosa famæ, conturbatorque macellus,
 Mensa ibi divitiis ruris operta sui.

Quæc

But a few friendships wear, and let them be
By nature and by fortune fit for thee.
Instead of art and luxury in food,
Let mirth and freedom make thy table good.
If any cares into the day-time creep,
At night, without wine's opium, let them sleep.
Let rest, which nature does to darkness wed,
And not lust, recommend to thee thy bed.
Be satisfied, and pleas'd with what thou art ;
Act chearfully and well th' allotted part ;
Enjoy the present hour, be thankful for the past,
And neither fear, nor wish th' approaches of the last.

Ep. XCVI. COWLEY.

ME, who have lived so long among the great,
You wonder to hear talk of a retreat,
And a retreat so distant as may shew
No thoughts of a return when once I go.
Give me a country how remote so e'er,
Where happiness a moderate rate doth bear ;
Where poverty itself in plenty flows,
And all the solid use of riches knows.
The ground about the house maintains it there ;
The house maintains the ground about it here.
Here even hunger's dear, and a full board
Devours the vital substance of the lord.
The land itself does there the feast bestow,
The land itself must here to market go.

LIV. In

Three or four suits one winter here does waste ;
One suit does there three or four winters last.
Here every frugal man must oft be cold,
And little luke-warm fires to you sold :
There fire's an element as cheap and free
Almost as any other of the three.
Stay you then here, and live among the great,
Attend their sports, and at their table eat ;
When all the bounties here of men you score,
The place's bounty there will give you more.
